PUT GUARD OVER FATHER WHO KILLED SMALL SONS

Humming On Good Schools,
Says Will Rogers

(Special To The News)
MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 5.—Say Alabama is sure humming on good schools. That one in Auburn will compare with anybody's university, and coming over here I spent the morning at Tuskegee, that living monument to Booker T. Washington. They have a great idea there that some of our schools are copying.

They teach the pupils that they are going to have to work and how to work. Our old mode of college education was teach 'em so they think they won't have to work. And singing. Oh, boy, after hearing 1,500 of those negro spirituals, I feel I will shoot the next white person that I hear try to sing one.

Say Tom Hefflin and I are all O. K. again. We realized there wasn't enough Democrats to afford to fall out.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

Confessed Slayer Of Two Children Attempts Suicide

George A. Chisholm, Confessed Slayer Of Two Young Sons, Desires To Die

TRIES TO KILL SELF IN PRISON

"Too Many Mouths To Feed" Is Only Explanation For Brutal Crime

(Special To The News)
INDIANA HARBOR, Ind., March 5.—George A. Chisholm, confessed slayer of his two young sons, was confined today in a barren cell at the Indiana Harbor jail. The cell is without furnishings of any kind to keep the prisoner from carrying out his threat of self destruction.

The change in cells was ordered last night by Police Captain Edward Knight after Chisholm had attempted to take his own life by piercing his jugular vein with the prong of a belt buckle. Captain Knight also ordered two guards posted at the cell door to keep a continuous watch upon the prisoner.

Mob Seeks Man
This was Chisholm's second narrow escape from death. The first came Saturday at the hands of a mob which surrounded the East Chicago, Ind. jail, soon after Chisholm had confessed that he had induced his sons, George, 9, and Edgar, 7, to wrap themselves with wire and jump into the ship canal, to their deaths, on the promise that they were going to visit their grandmother in Canada.

This confession was later revised in which Chisholm admitted he "pushed" the boys into the canal. He stated as his motive that he had "too many mouths to feed."

The first body was found floating in the ship canal at Indiana Harbor on February 22; the second came to the surface and was recovered last Thursday. Saturday morning, Chisholm, a 36-year-old foundry worker at East Chicago, and Canadian World war veteran, was arrested and accused of the murders. After several hours grilling, he confessed.

"Torch Slayer" Suspect Talks Of Surrender

Dr. Louis Clement, Mysterious Figure In Alleged Murder, Is In New York

WOULD SURRENDER IF GIVEN SQUARE DEAL

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Mar. 5.—The doors of police headquarters were ajar today in the expectancy that Dr. Louis Clement, mysterious inventor, would drop in and submit to questioning in connection with the "torch murder" of Margaret Brown, Park avenue divorcee, whose body was burned alive near Bernardsville, N. J.

The "doctor" is here in the city. He said so in a letter to a newspaper, denying any connection with the Brown murder. Clement said that he would have surrendered to police only that he was "broke" and therefore unable to retain counsel to protect his interests. Police believe the signature to the letter is authentic.

Although detectives today were checking up through the post office through which the letter was mailed, police admitted the "doctor" is elusive. He is credited with the invention of a fluid "able to destroy a town in the twinkling of an eye." Police appealed to Clement today to visit headquarters and promised him a square deal.

The letter said that Clement had left his wife because he was unable to support her. Pretty Therese Flower, violinist, also is seeking Clement in the belief that he is her husband who disappeared.

Clement, in the letter, declared that he could furnish an alibi which would show he had no connection with the New Jersey crime. He reviewed his colorful career and attributed the linking of his name with the murder "persecution" by an attorney "possessed by the idea that I am in his debt for legal services."

MRS. COOLIDGE VISITS MOTHER

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, wife of the president, is shown here at Northampton, Mass., after a hurried trip from Washington, D. C., to visit her mother, Mrs. Lemira B. Goodhue, who has been failing since she was taken to a Northampton hospital last December. With Mrs. Coolidge is her friend, Mrs. R. B. Hills, who accompanied her from Washington.

Mahoning Township Residents Ask For Township Division

Hillsville Community Wants To Erect 20-Room School Building

Mahoning River, Which Passes Through, Would Be Dividing Line

Division of Mahoning township, with the Mahoning river as the dividing line is asked in a petition presented at court this morning. The petition was signed by 68 property owners who represent more than 25 per cent of the assessed valuation.

The assessed valuation, according to books in the county commissioners' office is about $1,600,000. The primary reason for asking a division of the township is in order that better school facilities may be provided in the half in which the village of Hillsville is located.

The petition sets forth that there is a diversity of interests in the two proposed sections. Residents south of the Mahoning river are largely engaged in mining limestone, while those in the northern section are principally engaged in agriculture.

Provide Better Schools
In the village of Hillsville at the present time there are twenty teachers working in eleven rooms. There are 574 pupils enrolled, according to County Superintendent, John C. Sykes. (Continued On Page Eleven)

Lindbergh Takes Capital Notables For Ride In Plane

Colonel Lindbergh Expresses Desire To Enjoy Life As Private Citizen

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 5.—Here for a quiet visit enroute to St. Louis, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh kept in seclusion again today. He expressed a wish to be left alone to enjoy life as a private citizen.

The exact time for his departure has been closely guarded but he is not expected to hop off before tomorrow morning.

Officials at Bolling Field said that his plane is ready to be cranked up and take the air at a moment's notice. Lindbergh's only public appearance thus far was at Bolling Field yesterday when he took up a number of government officials in Fehet's big transport plane.

Death Summons W. F. Dufford In St. Petersburg

Prominent Local Man Dies In Florida On Sunday Afternoon

ILL FOR SEVERAL MONTHS PAST

W. F. Dufford, of 318 East Wallace avenue, for over 40 years a furniture dealer and prominent business man here, died Sunday in St. Petersburg, Fla., aged 67 years, according to word received by members of his family here yesterday.

Mr. Dufford had been in poor health for the past two months. He had gone south last November. Death was the result of a complication of diseases.

Learning that her father was in a serious condition, his daughter, Pearl C. Dufford, left for Florida one week ago, and was at his bedside when he died. Mrs. Dufford's wife was also at his bedside.

Retired About Two Years Ago
Owing to ill health Mr. Dufford had not been active in his furniture store for the past two years. He had taken the store over from his father years ago, and had always led an active business life until infirmities developed.

Mr. Dufford was born in Butler county, coming to Lawrence county with his parents in early childhood. It was largely through his untiring efforts that the large business of the Dufford furniture company was developed.

He is survived by his wife and the following children, Pearl D. Dufford, Paul R. Dufford, Vernett E. Dufford. (Continued On Page Eleven)

French Aviators Reach Detroit On Flight To Coast

(International News Service)
DETROIT, March 5.—The intrepid French fliers, Lieutenant-Commander Joseph Lebrun and Captain Dieudonne Costes, are the guests of Detroit today after a surprise landing at Ford airport yesterday in their trip around the world.

They plan to leave tomorrow in their remarkable plane, the "Nungesser-Coli," for Chicago, and thence to San Francisco, where they will sail for Tokyo to resume their flight to Paris.

St. David's Day Celebration Is Notable Event

Secretary Of Labor James J. Davis Is Speaker Of Afternoon

NEARLY 500 ATTEND CATHEDRAL BANQUET

Musical Numbers Also Feature Of Excellent Banquet Program

Saturday, when this city played the role of host, to the Hon. James J. Davis, secretary of labor of the United States in the cabinet of President Coolidge, it honored one of the outstanding representatives of that sturdy old country race, the Welsh, who have played such an important part in the development of this country.

Never before in the history of the city had there been a St. David's Day observance of the magnitude or dignity of this, and it reflected not only to the credit of the city as a whole, but in particular to that little band of thirty-five or more women, who call themselves the Welsh Women's Club.

Nearly 500 Attend

Nearly five hundred people from all walks of public and private life were in attendance in the magnificent dining room of the Scottish Rite Cathedral when shortly before two o'clock Saturday afternoon they gathered about the prettily decorated banquet tables, sang "America," then stood silently at attention as the blessing of God was asked on those present and the food about to be dispensed by the Rev. Samuel Whitting, pastor of the First Congregational church.

With this, the serving of a wonderful banquet prepared by the ladies of the Women's Welsh club was under way.

The tables were attractive and pretty with their decorations of green and yellow and flowers and each guest found at his place a well-fashioned representation of a "Leek," national in its significance to those of the Welsh race.

During the progress of the banquet, pep singing was the order of the day with Prof. R. E. Johns as leader, and Mrs. Henry Badger at the piano. The singing was in keeping with the occasion and with the presence of a group of people, known (Continued On Page Eleven)

Harper Given Fine Promotion

District Manager Of Bell Company Is Promoted To Pittsburgh Office

W. R. BINGHAM IS SUCCESSOR HERE

T. J. Harper, who for the past 2½ years has been district manager of the Bell Telephone company here has been promoted and transferred to the Pittsburgh office and Wm. R. Bingham has been transferred from Pittsburgh to succeed Mr. Harper as district manager here.

Although the transfer was effective on March 1, Mr. Harper says that he will be here for several days and will continue his residence in New Castle for some months. His new position in the Pittsburgh office will be general director of the company for 17 years.

Mr. Bingham, who succeeds Mr. Harper has been here several days and states that he will soon move his family to New Castle. He has been connected with the Pittsburgh office of the company for 2 years as rate engineer, and previous to that was located at Harrisburg. Mr. Bingham has been with the Bell company for 8 years. He is a graduate of Lehigh University.

Goes On Trial For Life

MRS. VELMA WEST

THREE YEAR OLD YOUNGSTER ACCIDENTALLY SHOOTS SELF

Christ, little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Davis of 1202 Seio street, is in the New Castle hospital suffering from an accidentally self-inflicted bullet wound sustained Sunday, when the 38-caliber revolver of his brother, which he had found and with which he was playing went off. The bullet went through the fleshy part of the left thigh.

Today at the hospital it was stated that the little fellow had some temperature, but that there was still no reason to believe that he would not recover, unless some unexpected complication should arise.

According to the report at the police station, a sister was in an adjoining room doing some work, and the little fellow was playing about the other room. He found the revolver under a pillow of a brother's bed and started to play with it.

The first that the sister knew that he had the gun was when she heard the gun go off. She rushed into the adjoining bedroom, to find that her brother had shot himself. He was rushed to the New Castle hospital, where everything possible was done to relieve his condition.

Passenger Trains Delayed By Storm

(International News Service)
SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., March 5.—Fair and continued cool was the forecast for most of Michigan today after a snowstorm which held up two passenger trains and isolated numerous northern villages.

A South Shore Line train, carrying approximately 30 passengers, was delayed at Strongsville, Mich., for approximately 18 hours yesterday before it finished its run to Sault Ste Marie. A Soo Line train, with approximately 40 passengers, was blocked at Rexton, en route from Minneapolis to Sault Ste Marie and returned to Minneapolis.

Snow is piled so high on each side of the tracks railroad officials said that snow plows are unable to clear the way.

Velma West Goes On Trial Today On Murder Charge

Flapper Hammer Slayer To Face Court Ordeal At Painesville, O.

MAINTAINS CALM AS TRIAL STARTS

New Evidence Is Reported As Uncovered Against Mrs. West By Sheriff

(By JAMES L. KILGALLEN, International News Service Staff Correspondent)
COURTHOUSE, PAINESVILLE, O., March 5.—Striving to keep her jangled nerves under control, Velma West, 21-year-old blonde-flapper slayer, tripped into court here today, swathed in a light gray fur coat, to go on trial for the murder of her husband, T. Edward West, son of a nationally known nurseryman.

PAINESVILLE, O., March 5.—Her nerves seemingly under perfect control, and maintaining the stoicism of a fatalist, Velma West, the 21-year-old "iron flapper," who confessed to beating her husband, T. Edward West, to death with a hammer in their honeymoon bungalow, goes on trial here charged with first degree murder.

"I'm ready for the ordeal," she quietly told this writer in her cell in Lake county jail in the first interview she has granted. It lasted one hour and fifteen minutes, during which she said, among other things, that she certainly was not a sophisticated, hard-boiled flapper, that she had tried hard to settle down in the small town of Perry and be a real housewife, that she "had dreamed of babies," and that she is now "sorry" the quarrel flared up that resulted in her slugging her husband with the hammer.

She was perfectly self-possessed. No once did she ask for a cigarette and she enjoys her "fags." Even the self-reliant Ruth Snyder, the sash-weight slayer of another home-loving husband, never displayed more self-assurance than does this other younger blonde defendant enmeshed (Continued On Page Two)

Former Resident Asks For $250,000

Mrs. Alice Bland Corbett Files Big Damage Suit In New York

ALIENATION OF HER HUSBAND IS CHARGE

Trial of the suit brought by Mrs. Alice Bland Corbett, wife of James J. Corbett, the former a resident of this city previous to her marriage, is scheduled to come up today in New York City.

Mrs. Corbett is suing the Countess Andrew M. G. Soranzo of Florence, Italy, the former Marquess G. Stevenson of New York for $250,000 for the alleged alienation of the affections of her husband.

The charges include a story of how Corbett, after a brief courtship induced the former Miss Stevenson to elope with him, even though he was already married to the complainant. The marriage of Miss Stevenson was annulled when she discovered that Corbett was already married.

Resided Here

About five years ago Mrs. Corbett was a resident of this city, well known and popular. She was employed as a stenographer. About that time she went to Denver, Colorado, where she became acquainted with Corbett, said to be the son of a well to do New York family. When she returned to this city, Corbett followed her and they were married here about three years ago. After a short stay here (Continued On Page Two)

Ruth Elder To Abandon Future Ocean Flights

"Mother's Health Too Delicate To Take Chances" Says Girl Aviatix

(International News Service)
BOSTON, March 5.—Ruth Elder, girl aviator, who had an engagement to call on Governor Alvan T. Fuller today, will not make any more transatlantic flights, she said on her arrival here to fulfill a theatrical contract.

"My mother's health is so delicate that I would not dare take any unusual risks with my life for it would worry her so," she said. She said she would like to get into the movies, although admitting she was delighted with the proposal of Flo Zeigfeld to start her on a stage career.

FIVE ARE KILLED IN PLANE FALL

(International News Service)
SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 5.—Authorities here today began an inquiry into the cause of the airplane crash which cost the lives of five men yesterday.

The plane, piloted by its builder, W. W. Bird, was soaring above Mahones Flying Field here at an altitude of 300 feet when it suddenly took a nose dive and plunged to earth.

The four passengers, Ralph Craig Clifford III, Chester K. Kidwell and Irvin Thomas, were instantly killed while the pilot died a few minutes after the crash.

Arthur Mometer

March was enraged at something or other, some one offended him, made him quite sore, changed in a twinkling from sunshiny weather to storms that he hurried with a snort and a roar. Rain drops and snow and a coating of icicles, sizes that impeded the motorists view, blew with a vim and the weather descended, forced its way down till its marked twenty-two. Felt like the Spring but it changed back to Winter, roadways were sheeted with icylike glass, March was enraged but he'll soon be placated, blizzards and snowstorms will likely soon pass. March was enraged and he snorted his anger, chilled everything that his icy breath hit, but March will get over his spell of bad temper, after he ponders and warms up a bit.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Among the unusual Saturday afternoon sights downtown was the transporting of a baby carriage on the rear of a small coupe. A man was standing on the running board holding it onto the rear of the coupe.

March is hanging out with winter with a strong grip. Another treacherous morning is experienced for auto traffic, the streets being icy following the snow storm of last night.

Nothing will show the herding instinct of homo sapiens better than a Sunday afternoon. Boys come downtown, where they meet others, who have come down for no reason at all. Then they will collect in groups, saying little and thinking less. In time, they break up and go home for dinner.

PA News is surprised at the large amount of building that is going on in New Castle during the winter season. Especially is it surprising the number of new residences that are going up at the present time.

Sunday evening was about as perfect a winter night scene out of doors as one could imagine. Everything covered with glistening snow, and then a brilliant moon appearing in the skies.

Something new in the way of autograph albums was shown to PA News Saturday afternoon. On the outside it is much like the ordinary album, but the interior is entirely different. Of course, there are signatures—signatures make any autograph album. But there are no sweet verses, copied out of the album of a friend, which in their places are small photos of the autographers, below which are fingerprints, also of the autographers. And the album, when filled, should make a fine addition to the archives of the fingerprinting department of any police force.

Bricklayers are going right along with the construction work at the Jameson Memorial hospital. The exterior walls are completed as far as the third story at the present time. This hospital will probably be completed and ready for service sometime late in the fall.

State highway department employees are working on the old macadam roads that still exist in this county. They do not seem to hold up under the winter weather conditions. It is only a matter of time until these will be replaced with permanent concrete highways.

Just about a year hence President Coolidge's present term will end. (Continued On Page Two)

Firemen Answer Numerous Calls

Kept On Jump Over Week-End; One Fire Does $500 Damage

Firemen of the city were called upon to respond to quite a number of regular and still alarms of fire over the week end. With one exception, the fires were not serious and the loss was little or nothing at all.

An alarm from box 44 at 7:20 a. m. Sunday called the firemen to the rear of 711 South Mill street, where they found the double garage of Joseph Ross in flames. It could not be saved. The loss was $500. The cause of the fire is unknown.

An alarm from box 79 at 10:50 a. m. Sunday called the firemen to the home of E. J. Ricker, 711 West Clayton street, where a fire had been caused by a gas range. The loss was about $25. When the first call was received, it was to another number on Clayton street, some distance from the actual scene of the fire. While the seventh ward department was on fire, a still alarm at 11:05 a. m. called the chief to Phillips street, where grass was also on fire.

A still alarm at 4:10 p. m. called the chief to a grass fire on Vine street. Still another still alarm called the chief to the poolroom of Milt Marshall, 306 East Washington street, which was noticed to be full of smoke. It was found that the heater was doing the smoking and that there was no fire.

An alarm from box 69 on Saturday evening at 7:05 p. m. called the firemen to the home of C. V. Rice, 537 Sampson street, where the chimney was burning out. There was no fire loss.

VELMA WEST GOES ON TRIAL TODAY ON MURDER CHARGE

in an equally appalling crime of the "jazz age."

Huge Throng at Court.

Huge throngs stormed the doors of the courtroom long before court opened. Every seat was filled an hour before the scheduled hour of the opening of court. The start of the trial was delayed while the judges and the lawyers for both sides went into conference in the judge's chambers. Nearly all the spectators were women.

Meanwhile the blonde blue-eyed Velma was brought into the courtroom through a tunnel from the little red jail in back of the courthouse, accompanied by the sheriff and a matron. She was muffled in a huge light gray coat. She strode swiftly to her seat and waited for opening of court, her fingers twitching nervously as she removed her tan gloves. A narrow silver wedding ring glinted from one of her slim fingers.

Find New Evidence.
And while Velma was steeling herself for her fight to escape the electric chair, new and startling evidence had just been dug up against her. Sheriff Edward T. Rasmussen showed International News Service a copy of a four-page typewritten statement signed by Miss Mabel Young, a Cleveland stenographer, only a year or two out of high school, which in the opinion of the sheriff, reveals the motive for the crime.

"Velma's intense desire to break the shackles of married life and get away from her husband to do what she wished was the motive for the slaying," said the sheriff, who had just grilled Miss Young at length and who three months ago exacted the confession from Velma that she had killed her husband "in a blind rage." The sheriff, who has taken a leading part in digging up evidence against Velma, declared that a warm friendship existed between Velma and Mabel since last July.

It was to Miss Young's home at 2111 Willowdale avenue, Cleveland, that Velma dashed in her green roadster immediately after she had battered her husband to death in the bedroom of their home in Perry. It was a 35-mile run from Perry to Cleveland. The murder was committed at about six p. m. on the evening of December 6 last, and that night Velma played bridge at Miss Young's home at an all-party party, comprising mostly high school graduates.

It is charged by the state that Velma was the "life of the party," although Velma herself denied that in her interview with this correspondent. Velma did play and sing high school songs as "Missing You Dear" and "I'm Tired and Lonely for Home."

Went Swimming.
Velma stayed all night at Miss Young's home and was arrested the next day. In the statement obtained Sunday by the sheriff from Miss Young, the Cleveland stenographer said she and Velma on several occasions motored to Perry-on-the-Lake and enjoyed themselves swimming. She said Velma was greatly attached to her.

For the first time the sheriff today disclosed in detail how he obtained the murder confession from Velma and his deductions as the result of close observation of Velma for weeks in the county jail where she has been practically incommunicado. He has talked with her many times.

"I believe that she harbored the idea of killing her husband for weeks before she did it," said Rasmussen.

"She had had enough of married life. Only five weeks before the murder she came to me personally and asked if I couldn't do something to stop her husband from opening her mail. I told her to go home and settle that between themselves."

"The day of the killing she and her husband had been to Painesville shopping. Among other things she bought was a ball of twine, presumably to fix drapes. They got home to Perry about 5:30. The evening paper had just been delivered. West parked the car out in front, took the paper off the porch and went upstairs to the bedroom to read it."

In Bad Humor.

"Velma wasn't in any too good humor. Her husband had refused to drive her to Cleveland so she could attend the bridge party. She followed him up to the bedroom. I believe that at this point she asked him for the keys to the car and he refused. This enraged her and she picked up the hammer which she had been using earlier in the day to fix a curtain and struck him on the head. He tried to rise. She struck him again, and again—six times or more. He rose to a half crouching position on four or five occasions. Finally he fell on his face. She took a pillow slip and pushed it over his head. Then she smashed several other blows on his forehead. She reached into his pocket and pulled forth a bandana handkerchief and the keys for the car."

"When I looked at the body next morning the handkerchief had slipped down around his chin. She evidently had tried to gag him. He may have been moaning."

Burned Clothes.

"She took a finger nail clipper and snipped off some of the twine. I found a piece of hemp on the clipper. She tied his hands and feet with the twine and left him, face down on the floor. She went to the pump in the kitchen and washed her hands. She took off her bloody clothes and burned them in the furnace."

"Velma then went out to where the car was parked, unlocked it and drove to the home of Miss Young."

There were no tears, no nerves, no visible apprehension from Velma when Rasmussen trapped her by an adroit question.

"Why did you leave the back door open and the light lit?"

There have been no tears from her in all the weeks she has been in jail. Velma seemed quite calm when she talked at length with this writer but she was concerned about her mother.

She was not at all nervous, apparently, and discussed freely her fondness for books, dancing and swimming. She reads incessantly in her cell and said time is not dragging too heavily. She gets more consolation from the Bible, she said, although now and then she switches to fiction. Just now she is reading the book entitled "Beyond" by John Galsworthy.

J. O. Bridenbaugh Dies Here Sunday

Brother Of Coach Phil Bridenbaugh Expires In New Castle Hospital

Joseph Oellig Bridenbaugh, aged 43 years, of Martinsburg, Pa., brother of Philip H. Bridenbaugh, instructor and athletic coach in New Castle senior high school, died Sunday night, March 4, at 11 o'clock in the New Castle hospital following an illness of heart trouble.

Mr. Bridenbaugh had left his home last Wednesday to go to Emmenton to visit his brother, Dr. C. F. Bridenbaugh. Soon after boarding the train he became ill and when he reached New Castle he was unable to go any further.

He was removed to the hospital where everything was done for his recovery. Although he had been in poor health for two years his death was very unexpected.

He was born in Martinsburg, February, 1883, a son of P. H. Bridenbaugh and Catherine Oellig Bridenbaugh, who survive him. He was a member of St. John's Reformed church of Martinsburg, and was a machinist by trade. He was also a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge No. 445 of Martinsburg.

Besides his parents and brother in this city he leaves the following brothers and sisters: Dr. C. F. Bridenbaugh of Emmenton, Pa.; Mrs. William Loch of Greenville, Pa.; Mrs. Floyd Snyder of Sharon, Pa.; Mrs. Carl Beck of Myersdale, Pa.; Mrs. Grace Bessler of Alexandria, Katherine, May and Louis J. Bridenbaugh and Mrs. Anna Bolger of Martinsburg and C. G. Bridenbaugh of Holidaysburg.

The body was sent at 12:45 today over the Pennsylvania Lines for Martinsburg, where funeral services will be held and burial made.

Deaths Of The Day

Betty Sittler.

Betty Sittler, the little daughter of William E. and Elizabeth Hays Sittler, died at the family residence, 210 S. Croton avenue, Sunday, March 4, at 9 p. m. after an illness of pneumonia. She is survived by her parents. She was born January 12, 1923, and was one month and 21 days old. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family residence, 210 S. Croton avenue, and interment will be made in Grace-land cemetery.

Fred D. Cox.

Fred D. Cox of Pulaski township died at 1 a. m. today in the Mahoning county sanitarium following an extended illness. He was the son of Charles C. and Alice Wagner Cox of Pulaski township. There is much conjecture just at this time as to his likely successor.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON—A newsboy squawks his wares, watched by a throng of be-tooth-picked gentry who have just emerged from a neighboring restaurant. . . . Few people are on the streets, and those who are, wander helplessly about, not knowing where to go. . . . But later the soda grills will start to fill up, and wild tales will be heard of Saturday's adventures. . . . People window-shopping, in their imaginations buying this and that. . . . Not thinking how they are going to pay for this and that. . . . But a little vicious buying does no one any harm. . . . A stamp collector gazes wildly as he tells of the methods which he employed in getting a letter mailed from the boat which recently brought Coolidge from Havana. . . . Street cars clang noisily on half deserted streets. . . . And a snow storm blows up, driving everyone indoors.

Dr. C. G. Jordan, of Lawrence county, state secretary of agriculture, spoke on Saturday night at the Allegheny County Agricultural Co-operative association in Pittsburgh. He spoke enthusiastically of Pennsylvania's agricultural and fruit growing possibilities.

The result of the marriage of Corbett and Miss Stevenson was that they went to Florida, where they were finally apprehended and brought back to New York.

It is alleged by friends here, that Corbett and his affinity, Miss Stevenson, passed a number of forged checks on the latter's father, and that when they were taken back to New York, that while Miss Stevenson was freed of her charges through the efforts of her parents, that Corbett was and is now imprisoned for the same thing. Since the affair, Mrs. Corbett has been compelled to earn a living for herself and little daughter.

The Welfare Store
113 S. Jefferson St.

Wishes to thank all kind friends that have given to help this good work along. People from all over the city of New Castle have given some old clothes, shoes, furniture, rags, paper and magazines to help this work along. And we are helping hundreds to help themselves. There are working people with big families who don't get enough to keep their families as they would like to who are very glad of the chance to come here and pay a few cents for what they need. The good people of New Castle know that we must have a place to keep these things, and there is the expense of getting the things here, so we must ask a little to pay these bills. This store is a need to our town and the kind friends have done well by supporting this place, and we wish to extend our great thanks. We also invite all given to come and see what you are doing for the poor of your town, so if you are not among our number and have any old clothes, shoes, furniture, rags, paper and magazines to help this work along, just call 1394. Wishing to thank you, I am, Mary Lindsay, welfare worker, 113 South Jefferson street.

CHIPMAN-WALKER ENGAGEMENT NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Chipman, 236 Edgewood avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter Margaret Mae to William Alexander Walker III, son of Mrs. W. A. Walker, Jr., of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The engagement will terminate in an early spring wedding.

Birthday Surprise
E. A. Caldwell, County Line street was pleasantly surprised in his home Friday evening when a number of relatives and friends gathered in his home in celebration of his 57th birthday anniversary. The hours were enjoyably spent with music and games, and many lovely gifts were presented the guest of honor.

A buffet lunch was served later by Mrs. Manville Foster, Mrs. W. J. Caldwell and Mrs. E. A. Caldwell. A large birthday cake decorated with candles formed the centerpiece of the table.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Caldwell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Manville Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCleary and daughter Blanche, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Book, Mr. and Mrs. James Book, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Book and family, Mrs. James James, Misses Clarabel Blucher, Nellie Foster, Marie Carr, Beulah Graham, Margaret and Grace Ray, and Messrs Ray Foster, John Zeigler, Raymond McCleary, Ray Zeigler, Alex Hammon, and Robert Ray.

Members of Lawrence Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution had a business meeting in the home of the regent Mrs. James T. Ray, Wallace avenue, Saturday afternoon. Fifteen were present, and following the routine business, a most instructive paper on "Madison's Letters from Elliott's Debate" was read by Miss Alma Locke.

The next regular meeting will be April 7 with Mrs. S. W. Perry, East North street, as hostess.

Gibraltar Club
Mrs. H. L. Plotts, Morton street received members of the Gibraltar club in her home Friday evening. Games and cards were pastimes. Refreshments were served and the hostess was assisted by Miss Maxine Linton, Mrs. H. B. Linton, Miss Evelyn Jewell, and Miss Mary Hanna.

Friday, April 6, Mrs. Samuel Rohrer, Cedar street will be hostess.

Happy Hour Club.
Mrs. Harvey Robinson, Delaware avenue, received members of the Happy Hour club in her home Friday evening. Music and games were pastimes. Dainty refreshments were served and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. John Wettich and Mrs. James Spear.

In two weeks Mrs. Claude Allerton, East street, will entertain.

G. A. T. Kensington
Mrs. Thomas McNicholas, Beckford street will entertain the G. A. T. Kensington members, Thursday, instead of Mrs. George McFarland as planned.

Ladies' Scottish Club
Mrs. Thomas Stewart, Croton avenue will be hostess to members of the Ladies' Scottish club, Thursday evening, instead of Tuesday.

Girls Club.
Mrs. William F. Moody will be hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon Friday in her home on Highland avenue for members of the Girls club.

N. H. B. Kensington
N. H. B. Kensington members will be guests of Mrs. Dallas Hildebrand, Court street, Wednesday afternoon.

Highland Book Club
Members of the Highland Book club will have a 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday at The Castleton.

F. L. C. Club
Mrs. Harry Cook, Hillcrest avenue will be hostess to the F. L. C. club members, Tuesday evening.

Frazier-Young Wedding
Wednesday, February 29, a quiet wedding took place at the United Presbyterian manse at Portersville, when Miss Florence M. Frazier became the bride of John R. Young, both of Portersville. Rev. G. H. Cheesman officiated.

A wedding dinner was served later at the home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Young will reside in Elwood City, where the groom is employed with the National Tube company.

G. W. C. Club
Mrs. William Campbell, Scott street, will be hostess to the G. W. C. club members instead of Mrs. Ralph Weller as previously announced.

OUR LABOR SURPLUS—AN UNEXPECTED DEVELOPMENT

WHEN real immigration restriction was undertaken by the Act of 1924, it was expected in most quarters that this would result in a temporary shortening of the labor supply. Therefore, after cutting down labor from Europe, the loss of which so many declared would ruin us, we are astonished to find that we still have a surplus of unemployed labor reported from all parts of the country. This means that almost every working immigrant let in at the present time either takes a job from an American who needs it, or goes without one himself. In either case, he adds to an economic burden of unproductive labor from which it will profit us to escape.

The several causes of this situation are that we have saved the labor of armies of railroad hands, miners, agricultural workers and countless thousands of men and women in other occupations. This is due to better organization, better appliances, labor saving inventions and the use of oil and water power in the place of coal. These labor-saving factors are among the outstanding reasons why we are able to produce just as much wealth as before, while using one or two million fewer hands in the process.

Combined with this, there is the new generation of workers coming forward out of our schools, and looking for places in our industrial system. In the face of all this, there is an increased inflow of unrestricted immigration from Canada, Mexico and the West Indies. Our real problem, therefore, is to take still fewer hands from abroad, and to utilize properly our own workers, who are being thrown out. By this means we can prevent reaction in business by getting their consuming power back into our markets, thus adding greatly to our wealth and prosperity.

Many of our congressmen and senators are not yet fully awake to this situation, nor are their constituents. Our representatives have been hearing mostly from those minorities who wish, in one pretext or another, to bring in more foreigners of whom we have not the slightest need. They are discussing chiefly how many we shall have of one kind or another, when in fact we do not need any of them. We have enough to do to get our American unemployed back into production, and to give our own children proper employment without giving their jobs away to outsiders.

THE IMPASSE IN CONGRESS

WHAT congressmen term "legislative congestion" is sometimes described by caustic critics of congress as the inability of that body to transact business. Whichever it is, that is the condition in which the nation's lawmaking body now finds itself. The condition is chronic at the present stage of any session.

Hearing members complain of the congestion, which they claim is responsible for their failure to settle any of the several major issues before the session, the public wonders at the persistent talk in both chambers of an adjournment in May. The situation is giving rise to the suspicion that the muddle isn't quite as bad as it is pictured.

Tax reduction is demanded of congress in this session, but it may be killed by that group which is determined there shall be no tax reduction of it is not accompanied by tariff reduction. By the subterfuge of trying to place a tariff revision rider on the tax reduction bill the low-tariff group is delaying the tax cut and may kill it.

Congress will probably debate from now until adjournment on farm relief, and a flood control program seems as remote now as before the Mississippi disaster. No one was more surprised than congress itself that the naval construction program was definitely decided. The nation has given up hope of ever seeing the merchant marine and Muscle Shoals questions settled.

Some members of congress, it seems, think they can escape responsibility for their acts or inaction if only they succeed in passing the burden on to the white house. But the country is not likely to be deceived so easily. It looks to congress for more than evasion and expects it to operate as a coordinate branch of the government, awake to the duty of working with the executive branch.

MOTOR CARS' "FUNNY" TAGS

THE END of the day of the so-called "humorous" auto tag is in sight. New Jersey and Pennsylvania have declared war on such signs as "If you can read this, etc." Only official license plates are permitted.

Some motorists find a great satisfaction in suspending these plates to their cars. Just what the psychology is that prompts such decorations is not intelligible to every person, but apparently somebody gets a "kick" out of it.

But there will not be any more of that kind of "kick" in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. And similar action will probably follow in other states as they learn the confusion between the official and the supplementary tags and are impressed with the excesses and extreme to which these jokesmiths go with their humor.

With the return of sweeter music, ingenious efforts are being made to keep jazz popular, someone even suggesting that it be prohibited by law.

When you consider his present eminence, don't forget that Mr. Hoover achieved it against heavy odds: He had to live down war bread.

Our history shows that no epoch-making piece of legislation is included among those which were enacted because congress "had to do something about it" before adjournment.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:57. Sun rises tomorrow 6:27.

Apparently salary raising time as far as city employees are concerned is over for the present at least. Economy apparently is the keynote with the members of council taking the position that it's a poor time to spend the taxpayers' money for increases, when those who pay them are living on less.

When it is announced that there is to be a reduction in rates for telephone conversations, it makes one feel happy, if it applies to the conversations that we hold ourselves, but how are we going to get happy just because of a forty per cent reduction in rates for a conversation between New York and London? Just think of spending $30 for permission to say all you want to in three minutes to some person in London, when some people pay $2.25 a month and use your line all the time.

One of the millions of women who have turned to look back, it is recorded, that only one was turned to look. But of the billions of men, who turned for just one more look, we never heard of one turning to brass.

Every man is welcome to his opinion, but the chances are that it isn't worth much, especially if expressed in the presence of his wife, who knows him best of all.

It's reported that the fellow who married a telephone operator and became the father of twins has made the statement that she gave him the wrong number.

The wise person learns to say "no." To say "yes" often means just another monthly installment.

We send missionaries to convert the Hindu, the Mohammedan, the savage and are convinced of the good we are doing, when we gather a small and faithful following among these various types of non-Christian people. But when one of their number brings their faith to our shores and we witness the strange sight of our own people flocking to them, we sometimes think that not all the necessary missionary work has been completed here.

There are those people who would shatter the constitution, just to satisfy their personal thirst. But they would be the first persons to howl, if there was no constitution to protect them.

You won't believe this but just try it on your own piano. The horse of another color is the same thing as a song of another tune.

Joe Bulger is the authority for the statement that either it is more difficult to talk to Mars than the scientists thought, or else the planet is high hating us.

Evidently there are now more nations than the United States that feel the need of a "full dinner pail". And they are making the most of the lesson that we taught them, that the way to do this is, to erect a high protective tariff wall against other nations having something to sell.

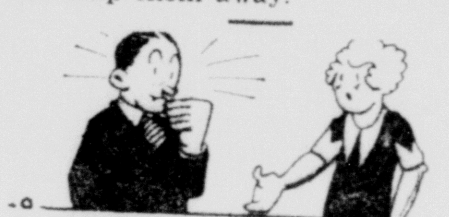

There are three hens working for each of you, that is, providing you are getting your share. At that rate, each of us should be good for at least one fresh egg a day.

We note that Spain is expected to re-enter the League of Nations when the assembly reconvenes at Geneva in September. It is said that the Latin-American countries will make the move that will make this possible. Fear of American influence in the Western Hemisphere through the Pan-American Congress is said to be the reason that Spain is willing to resume her place in the League of Nations, in order that her prestige among Spanish speaking peoples of this part of the world may not be entirely obliterated.

Not so many days now until the twelfth, our birthday anniversary. We're anxious to see just how many boys and girls arrive in old Lawrence county on that date, for they are all scheduled to receive a little remembrance from us. May shorten our summer vacation, a little, but that will be all right with us. It's five dollars for a boy or a girl and maybe fifteen for twins. Haven't decided just what triplets would be worth.

Newspaper headline reads "Marines' columns press Sandino band." You'll pardon us but somehow that made us think of sardines. Guess it's because they are packed pretty close together. Looks as if the only way to get rid of those Nicaraguan bandits is to pack them up like sardines and ship them away.

Few families all make the breakfast nook at the same time. They generally renew their acquaintance at dinner.

There are plenty of fellows still trying to help to slip into office on a wet plank, but you'll generally find that they have kept one side of the plank slightly dry, so as to make the trip a little easier.

Strange as it may seem, the binding on books of fiction do not seem to last near as well or as long as those on works of science and history.

Trial marriages are very often a success until one of the two parties to the affair expresses a wish for the regulation kind. Then you find the courts trying to adjust the affairs of the individuals involved.

It's a wonder how some people expect the country to get any place when they insist upon expressing themselves every other place, except at the polls. The citizen, who fails to exercise the right of franchise is about the same as the man without a country. At least he has no right to complain.

In recognition of his services in providing milk for the starving children of Austria after the World War and his aid in modernizing the Vienna police force, Colonel Walter Scott, an American, has been presented with the silver Grand Cross of Austria. There is one thing sure, Colonel Scott can wear this cross without fear that he did not earn it.

Memorials for Earl Haig, World War leader of Great Britain, will be of a form that will do those with whom he was affiliated during the war some good. They are to be in the form of homes for ex-service men and their dependents. A fund of $2,500,000 is being raised for this purpose. No greater token of respect for the memory of any man could be given than this.

The six months old daughter of the Japanese emperor is reported to be very seriously ill. Her temperature has gone up, it's reported. If she had been born in other than the family of an emperor, it is likely that her high fever would not have disturbed a whole nation.

TODAY'S STORYETTE

A northern man spending the summer in the south west went to see the last game of a series between two local teams. For a time he could not observe any umpire, but at last the spectator espied his umpship sitting up in the grandstand among the spectators.

"Great guns, man!" the north-erner exclaimed to a native. "What's the umpire doing up in the grandstand?"

"Well," the native exclaimed, "the spectators used to accuse him of bum work so he allowed that if the folks up in the grandstand could see every play so darned well, he'd better go up there and his his umpire."

There are always two sides—the right side, and the side that calls names.

It's easy. Let store fronts drop back ten feet; use the space for parking and keep the streets clear.

So often a statesman's remarks are important because the make-up man needs another big head for the fifth column.

BROKEN PROMISES
And so she left him, struggling with his weakness.
Too frail to conquer for her sake, was he.
I sometimes ask the question in all meekness,
Which was the greater coward, he or she?

So oft the promise made to her he'd broken,
And yet she'd vowed a vow she might recall,
And took his golden circlet as a token,
To cling to him though good or ill befell.

She left her drunken husband to stay drunk,
Perhaps it was the only thing to do,
She left before her cheeks with woe were shrunken,
He broke his promise. Hers lies broken, too!

Two Great Trees.
Plant Idle? Certainly.
Diamonds All Around.
Your Heat Fights Germs.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

From a big orange tree in southern California, the Riverside Chamber of Commerce sends 126 oranges to as many newspaper editors. The tree is one of two imported from Brazil by the United States department of agriculture. Those two trees are the father and mother of all the "Washington Navel Trees" that make up great groves in southern California.

Similarly, a few cherry trees, brought by Lucullus from his wars in Asia, are the ancestors of millions of cherry trees that small American boys climb every year. Such are the wealth and generosity of nature.

Mr. Rogers at Muscle Shoals, inspects with his mournful cowboy eye, a $150,000,000 plant built by the people to produce nitrogen to supply cheap fertilizer for farmers, and explosives in case of war.

Mr. Rogers remarks that such a plant lying idle is enlightening. It means that government isn't quite ready to deliver the plant over to the power trust.

And until the power trust gets it, that trust won't let anybody else use the Muscle Shoals plant.

Beyers, minister of mines for South Africa, announces discovery of an amazing diamond field. He picked up $3,000 worth of diamonds lying on the surface of the ground in an hour. Employees of the government, which reserves the new "diggings" as government property, gathering up several hundred thousand dollars' worth of diamonds in a short time.

The news will worry Britain's diamond monopoly for a while, although reserving the "diggings" as state property will prevent any sudden glutting of the diamond market.

In the long run Providence seems to take care of gold, silver and diamond value.

The needs and wealth of the human race increase more rapidly than the supply of gold and diamonds.

Discovery of a new leprosy cure at the Malampule leper colony in South Africa, is encouraging. Chalmers, an oil has worked miracles against the ancient disease. The new method uses the heat of a leper's body to kill the disease germs. A high fever is artificially established, and the germs die, unable to stand a temperature to which the patient's blood is raised.

This reminds doctors that when nature increases body temperature, the extra heat has its value. Indiscriminate use of drugs to deaden the heart and reduce temperature is extremely dangerous, interfering with the body's effort to conquer invading germs.

Congress will proceed cautiously in barring Mexican labor. Legislation concerning Asiatic labor has raised numerous problems, particularly in California.

If Mexican labor should be suddenly excluded, the problem for the entire southwest would be most serious.

Machinery will be devised eventually to do the so-called back breaking work that proud United States citizens accuse to their automobiles.

But nothing should be done too suddenly, unless the government is willing to precipitate hard times over a wide area.

A Chicago doctor is promptly convicted of murder in the first degree by an intelligent jury, for an illegal operation that caused the death of a girl 19 years old.

It was shown that the man neglected the unfortunate girl when a nurse reported that she had no more money, and that he would not send her to a hospital where she might have been cared for, because "that might cause suspicion."

Capital punishment is brutal and out of date. A hell, burning forever, which means trillions of years and more, seems severe. But the electric chair with hell to follow would appear to be about the right prescription for that Chicago doctor.

Thanks to Mussolini's common sense, a new law compels merchants in Italy to mark prices plainly and stick to the prices. That will increase foreign buying, especially by Americans who do not like to pay double or devote half an hour to bargaining over a trifle.

Merchants in Italy won't like it, but their business and prosperity will increase.

HOOPER PRESIDENT CLUB

I'd like to see silver dollars come back. They were mighty handy to slap on the counter and wake up a clerk.

What contented people I've seen looked mighty easily pleased.

Much to my surprise I received the following letter a few days afterwards:

"Dear Sir—My wife has been unable to speak since you struck us on the highway and she has been under the care of the Doctor ever since. I shall expect you to take care of the matter."

I handed the massive to the insurance man and he said: "Huh! Guess we ought to sue the claimant for benefits conferred!" I informed the husband that there was "nothing there" and the matter ended there, presumably, the lady now speaks. Remember this, both the insurance man and I fully appreciated the following:

"The telephone rang long and loud. Henpeck took up the receiver as if he didn't care whether school kept or not."

"Hello! That you, Henpeck?" yelled an excited voice at the other end.

"Say, old man, this is Jerkum, the dentist. I accidentally gave your wife too much gas! She's unconscious! Hasn't spoken a word for half an hour! What shall I do? What shall I do?"

"Give 'er more gas, Doc!" cried Henpeck, gleefully. "I'll be right over."

Wrong And Right Ways To Exercise—Expression

By MME. HELENA RUBINSTEIN

Posture and expression comprise the two purely physical attributes of good personal conduct, but expression goes deeper than the surface indications might lead one to believe. Your whole body may be an expression of ease, poise, comfort and graciousness. If it isn't, it should be. However, let us begin with the face, although I do want to impress upon you again the fact that you are beautiful only insofar as each component part of you is beautiful. The fact cannot bear the laurels of beauty alone.

Your most expressive feature is your mouth. It was a wise and observant man who said "God gave us our features, but we make our mouths ourselves." Watch your mouth, in the name of beauty! Tight lips are "significant of uncertain temper—never a lovely thing in woman!" Drooping mouths are suggestive of melancholy, whining and dissatisfaction. A straight lined lower lip denotes selfishness. Gracious curves, uplifted corners, lovely little laugh dimples show a sunny, loveable, even disposition.

If you knew that you carried every bitter, vengeful feeling, every untruth, every thought of malice on your face, you'd guard your subconscious mind zealously, wouldn't you? You'd shut away all but the good, the cheerful and the pleasant. And five years from now it wouldn't matter a bit what the shape of your nose was, or the color of eyes, or the size of your mouth. You would be beautiful anyway—with a beauty unlimited by the technicalities of "Grecian or Roman features."

Catch yourself in unguarded moments and figure out just what your habitual expression is. When you sing about your work, do you incline toward happy, cheerful music, or are you forever intoning mournful dirges? That is all significant of the state of your mind—and the state of your mind is entirely responsible for your appearance. There are habits which combat beauty—the worry habit, the hurry habit, the whining habit, the

Is Everyone Lonely?

By IDAH McCLOE GIBSON

A little foursome of congenial people—two men and two women—were dining together the other evening. All of them had a certain amount of culture without being snobbish about it. All of them had traveled much and all were over forty. The men were bachelors, the women were widows.

One of the women spoke of the great loneliness of her sex, but the other took a contrary view.

"I do not think women have any less pleasure in this world than men, if they will take it," she said.

"I know it is quite the thing when four or five men are seen together about a dining table, to think they are having so much better time than the three or four women at another.

"The whole truth of the matter is that all human creatures are solitary. They live and die alone, even surrounded by numberless friends and relatives."

"Most of us are too much interested in ourselves to care very much about the interests of neighbors or acquaintances."

One of the men then said, "I have been lonely all my life but I confess that I have been afraid that if I married I would be bored and I have had such a horror of that, that I have not had the courage to marry."

The other man entered the conversation here. "That is the tragedy of life. We get tired and bored with everything—even the thing that interests us most—so soon."

The act of attaining is very much more to us than attainment itself.

While to learn something new, to accumulate money or property or even love seldom palls for there is also the hope of the future; to leave nothing one wants that one must work for means stagnation.

"Yes," said the woman who had first spoken. "There is nothing as glorious as one's first love affair with its tremors and fears and uncertainties; but when it is exchanged for the certainty of marriage—even a marriage that is perhaps as happy as wedded happiness goes—the most thrilling thing in life, suspense, is gone, and one cannot help being sometimes bored with the monotony of it."

Memo: There is no real reason why one should be bored or lonely but we are likely to be one or the other from pure laziness.

FACING UP TO PROBLEMS

There is considerable unemployment in this country. While there are perhaps a million and half of men and women who are working only part time, the labor department estimates there are one million who are unable to find any work at all. There are, of course, always a large number of idle men who are idle because they make little effort to find work. We always have a "lazy army" as well as merely an "idle army." But the fact remains there are many thousands eagerly hunting for work and not finding it.

A decrease in production and a wider distribution and use of labor by means of the five-day week and shorter hours have been suggested. This frightens many people who feel that a five-day week is a sell-out to laziness and luxury. Let's not be too quick to condemn any new idea. Let's not be afraid to face up to all problems with sense and courage.

TEACH YOUR BOY—

To be just and he will have few conflicts with the law.
To be considerate and you will not need to teach him manners.
To respect himself and you will not need to worry about his success.
To be courageous and he will need no other capital to begin with.
To be self-reliant and you will make him a leader.
To love knowledge and he will get his own education.
To be reverent and he will soon find a satisfactory religion.

PLEA TO SLEEP COSTS FOUR TEETH

LANCASTER, Pa., March 5.—Elwin Graybill, 16, pounded a .22 caliber rifle on the floor of his bedroom as a reminder that the playing of a phonograph in a room beneath was disturbing his sleep and the rifle was discharged, wounding the boy in the face. The bullet lodged in his cheek after tearing four teeth from the upper jaw. Hospital attendants said his condition was favorable.

The boy's father, who returned home shortly after 6 a. m., was the one playing the phonograph.

Will Continue War On Japanese Beetle

By GEORGE H. MANNING
(Washington Correspondent of The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 5.—Appropriations of $265,800 for control of the Japanese beetle and $147,830 for research on methods of eradicating the pest are contained in the appropriations bill for the department of agriculture, now being debated in the house of representatives.

Pennsylvania, as well as the federal government, is a "bug policeman" for the infested localities. Pennsylvania contributes $50,000 a year to help prevent the spread of the imported pest which has caused such tremendous damage to orchards, gardens, nurseries and golf courses in Pennsylvania.

Just recently the Japanese beetle has traveled farther west in Pennsylvania. L. B. Smith, in charge of the federal control work, described to the appropriations committee how the particularly through the coal-mining regions. We found beetles in Scranton and Wilkes-Barre this year."

Among the measures taken by the federal government during the current year to eradicate the Japanese beetle, Mr. Smith listed:

Development of a new spray which kills the beetle on contact.

Invention of a trap, now manufactured commercially, which costs less than a dollar, and has caught as high as 3,500 or 4,000 beetles a day.

A new and cheaper method of treating the soil to control the larvae, to protect lawns and golf courses from infestations.

Importation of some 420,000 parasites which eat the beetle or its larvae.

The Japanese beetle is particularly dangerous to apples, peaches, plums, grapes, currants, blackberries, raspberries, beans, beets, lettuce, ornamental trees and shrubs and grass.

The height of the dangerous season is from the middle of July to September 1.

The situation is much better this year than it was last year, Mr. Smith declared, due to the new methods of control worked out by the bureau of entomology of the department of agriculture.

AUTO KILLS WOMAN; HUSBAND ARRESTED

FAIRMONT, W. Va., March 5.—Mrs. J. T. White, 34, was killed Saturday night when an automobile went over an embankment at Glovers Gap on the Wheeling-Fairmont road. Her husband, who also was in the car, was placed in jail here and authorities said he would be charged with driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated, although White said his wife was at the wheel when the car was wrecked.

White, who is a native of Wetzel county, was unhurt. The White home is in the vicinity of Downs, near Fairmont.

ONE DEAD, THREE HURT IN CRASH

PINEVILLE, Ky., March 5.—Dr. James M. Morgan of Toledo, O., was killed and three others were injured near here Sunday when the automobile in which they were driving skidded and plunged 50 feet over an embankment and landed on a railroad track.

The injured are Mrs. Minnie Blue, a patient and friend of Dr. Morgan; Miss Bertha Bloodheart, a nurse in Dr. Morgan's private hospital, and George Allison. Mrs. Blue's home is at Perryburg, O., and Allison's at Wascen. The party was enroute to Florida.

OF A

New Yorker

BY BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Central Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Along with all my neighbors in the suburbs who occasionally like to remain in town to dine and dance or to go to the theater I am offering up a special prayer of thanksgiving to the management of a new hotel that is to be erected in the upper Thirties. This hotel it is announced will feature "suburban accommodation section" where rooms may be got by the hour "to provide suitable facilities for dressing for dinner, meeting friends or for a short rest between the end of a business day and evening engagements."

New Yorkers carry this dressing for dinner idea too far anyway. It is a strain upon us commuters to lug a suitcase into town in the morning and then dress in the office after the other members of the staff have gone home. Especially since the washstand in our office has no hot water faucet and is not near a light so that one can see whether one's tie is straight.

A story probably apocryphal is going the rounds about the opening night of "Strange Interlude." That is the O'Neill opus that begins at five in the afternoon, gives the audience an hour off for dinner at 7:30 and continues until 11:45. The question arose among those who wish to be socially correct as to whether one should defy the rule which prohibits evening dress before six or to defy the rule which prohibits day dress at an opening night.

It is said that on the opening night Horace Liveright was among those who arrived at the theater at five in full evening dress whereas Otto H. Kahn showed up in a cutaway. When the audience reassembled after dinner Liveright so the story goes, had changed to a cutaway, whereas Kahn had changed to full evening dress.

There is a handball court in Fifth Street near the fashionable St. Bartholomew's church. Here boys from the nearby public school disport themselves and of course the game overflows into the street. Every time the north and south traffic line is permitted to dash forward and the east and west lines are held in check the youngsters perform with enthusiasm in the street. And as soon as the cops whistle blows they dash back into the court again. On the safety islands in Park avenue hundreds of young men and boys employed in the buildings adjacent play catch during the noon hour. Their agility in retrieving balls from under the wheels of automobiles is astonishing and terrifying to watch.

Harry Hershfield, the cartoonist, started a Broadway column in a New York daily the other day. Asked if his stuff would clash with the dramatic department Harry said it wouldn't. OFF TO SEEK THEIR FORTUNES

"Su-gar, Su-gar, don't you tell him, wife! Don't you tell him! He is a wicked two-legs, and he only wants to know where the boys are so he can shoot at them with his bean shooter. Come away quickly or he may break your other wing. Su-gar, Su-gar, come away—come away!"

Flying toward them, calling distractedly all the while, came Mr. Bluebird. He alighted in the top of a small plum tree not far away. Mrs. Bluebird looked up at him loudly, and twittered in her sweet low voice. "Now don't you worry, dear! I am all right. This two-legs is a friend and what do you think—he has promised to provide us with a breakfast of suet every day. We shall not mind the cold at all, for the fat will keep us nice and warm. Besides, don't you see Snowbird, here? He and the boy have been talking together for a long time."

"Well what does Snowbird know about him?" cried Bluebird, still uncertain. "You never can tell! Remember how much you and I have always thought of the two-legs! We have sung our best songs for them and visited them time and time again, and what did you get for it? A broken wing! It doesn't pay to trust them. I say. Come away before this one does you harm."

"But I am the two-legs who used to feed you all the choice crumbs last spring and summer, when you and Mrs. Bluebird were so busy taking care of your babies. Don't you remember me? I wish you would believe me when I say that I would not hurt a feather on your body!"

Peter was very anxious to make friends with the handsome fellow. "You can take my word for it, this two-legs is alright!" declared Snowbird suddenly. Peter looked at him gratefully. At last Bluebird was convinced. "I have nothing more to say," remarked he. "Your word is good with me. Snowbird, and if two-legs will allow us, wife and I will be glad to be his friends. But promise me, boy," he spoke directly to Peter, "that you will not tell our whereabouts to any of your acquaintances who have been shooters!"

"THE CHILDREN GROW TIRED OF THE OLD FOLKS SO EACH FLIES OFF TO SEEK HIS FORTUNE."

"I certainly will not!" answered Peter. "And I promise you another thing—that I will not play with a boy who has one. I never liked the thing and now I hate it. But do answer my question, where are the boys?" "All flown off about their own business," said Mr. Bluebird, quickly, before his wife could say a word. "You see, they grew tired of staying with the old folks, and so each one has gone out into the world to seek his fortune. Wife and I only hope that they will find good wives—it would be too bad if one of them chose a mate who would not make him a good home."

Bluebirds are such home lovers, you know. Wife and I did our best to make good birds out of our children and it is not our fault if they do not make good parents."

"Of course they will—they were the best sons in birdland, and why shouldn't they be the best fathers. I'd like to know!" Mrs. Bluebird, usually so timid and gentle, really looked quite cross.

"Dear, dear, think of it, think of it!" said Mr. Bluebird, sadly, as he sat on the bare branch, and Peter noticed how well the blue of the bird's coat matched the blue sky above him.

Body ODOR...why we can't tell when we offend

BODY odor always betrays—but seldom warns its victim.

You know yourself that though you notice instantly the faintest hint of odor in others—the guilty ones usually remain unaware of giving offense.

Why? Simply because once an odor becomes familiar to us, our own sense of smell becomes deadened to it. Very often, this misleads even fastidious people into thinking they are safe—while actually they do offend.

Isn't it just as possible, then, that at times we, too, may offend others—without knowing it?

Body odor plays no favorites

No one is safe from body odor. To live, we must perspire. And in cooler weather—with activities indoors, in warm, stuffy rooms—body odor is more prevalent than ever.

On coolest days, our millions of pores continually give off invisible perspiration—often as much as a quart of waste every 24 hours.

This body moisture, whether visible or invisible, is always odorous. And no one escapes it. All of us—no matter what our position or occupation in life—may offend unless we take precautions.

No need to risk embarrassment

Yet there is a simple way to be sure we're safe from body odor. Just wash and bathe often with the delightful toilet soap that millions enjoy—Lifebuoy—it deodorizes.

The same mild and abundant antiseptic lather that helps protect health by removing germs—prevents body odor by purifying pores.

For complexions, too, this gentle Lifebuoy lather is marvelously beneficial. It keeps skins clear and satin-smooth.

Bootblack, nurse, artist or society debutante—every one of us, no matter who we are, may offend unknowingly

Body odor more noticeable at this time of the year—due to stuffy rooms—closed windows.

Pores give off as much as a quart of waste a day—even in coolest weather.

Now, a purifying toilet soap, its bland antiseptic lather keeps you safe from body odor.

In millions of homes, Lifebuoy is used for every toilet purpose.

You'll like its clean scent

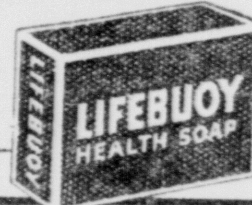

You will learn to love Lifebuoy's pleasant clean scent, which tells you Lifebuoy purifies, yet which quickly evaporates after rinsing.

Use Lifebuoy a week and you'll use it for life. Get some today.

"Electricity!!--

The Power of the Republic"

Says WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE Author and editor Emporia Gazette

"The democracy that really counts has come as a result of industrial and economic forces by giving men and women better wages, shorter hours and more self-respecting conditions of labor. The worker, growing up in these conditions of self-respect, no longer is willing to drudge. Hence the demand for electric power."

SUPPLYING electric light and power to the nation is not merely a business.

It is a public service that forever frees men from the tyranny of excessive burden; that spells the difference between less toil and more comfort; less confinement and more leisure; less poverty and more wealth. It is the measure of human prosperity and happiness.

Every time electrical service is extended, every time there is a new labor-saving device introduced in the home or in the factory, labor is made more useful and productive, the individual is released for those pursuits which make for better government, and civilization is broadened and strengthened.

The production of electric energy in the United States has doubled every five years since Edison invented the electric bulb. There is now generated in this country more electric power than is produced throughout all the rest of the world. If apportioned among all the workers in the U. S., it would give each worker the equivalent of 40 helpers.

Such wide-spread distribution of this vital force has been made possible through the splendid zeal of the electric power companies of this country. It presents unmistakable evidence of the efficiency of the American principle of individual initiative in the development and operation of the electrical facilities of this country. The continuance of this principle is essential to maintain progress.

Seventh Ward News

Missionary Will Speak Tuesday In Ward Church

Rev. Creist From Alaska To Speak; Other News Notes Of Seventh Ward

Rev. Henry W. Creist, M. D., missionary at Point Barrow, Alaska, will speak in the Mahoning Presbyterian church at 7:45 Tuesday evening. There will be no prayer service in the church on Wednesday evening as the service on Tuesday evening takes the place of the mid-week prayer service. Upon going to Alaska a number of years ago Rev. Creist first served as pastor of the church at Cape Prince of Wales. The Eskimo church on continental North America. After serving a year at Cape Prince of Wales, Dr. Creist, who is a medical physician as well as minister, went to Point Barrow as the physician in charge of the new hospital and pastor of the three churches at Point Barrow, Barrow and Wainwright. This parish extended over 1,000 miles of Arctic coast. During his five years of arduous and exceptionally active service at Point Barrow he gained an unusually large and rich experience of Eskimo habits and customs and has many thrilling experiences on land and frozen sea to tell about.

Adventists Hold Meeting Protesting Sunday Legislation

RABBI MENKES TO ADDRESS KIWANIS

At a Religious Liberty Rally of the Seventh-day Adventists held in their edifice at East Washington and Mercer streets, Sunday, March 4, the Lankford Sunday bill now pending in congress was vigorously opposed as striking directly against the activities of the Seventh-day Adventists, who have their world headquarters at Washington, D. C.

Rev. V. C. Reed, pastor of the local church, said that if the bill was passed every clergyman and office assistant in the world's headquarters of the church as well as every employee of their publishing house would be liable to a penalty of imprisonment for six months and a fine of $500 for working in their own buildings on Sunday.

Jacob B. Menkes, Rabbi, Temple Israel will address the New Castle Kiwanis club at their weekly luncheon, Wednesday noon, March 7 at the Elk club.

Rabbi Menkes as a speaker is highly spoken of. His subject will be "Ideals Made Popular." He has been in the community now for nearly half a year and this is the first opportunity Kiwanians have had to hear him.

Dr. C. B. Wingard of the program committee is fortunate in securing the speaker.

TEACHING OF THRIFT IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOL

R. G. Leslie, Public School Principal, Thrift is the wise management of one's resources, which include his health, his time, his energy, his property and his money. Thrift teaching in the schools had its beginning in the teaching of children to save money. It was not long, however, until thrift teaching in the public schools took on a much broader meaning, although, with the general public, the idea is rather prevalent that thrift applies only to money. True thrift means a wise use and management of all of one's abilities and possessions.

Thrift habits, like all good habits, should be formed early in life. Probably no one will be truly successful and happy in life unless they have developed the habit of thrift, even though they may be skilled in mathematics, learned in languages, trained in the sciences or have talent in the arts.

The first real interest in the teaching of thrift came during the meeting of the National Education Association at San Francisco in 1915, when there was formed the national committee on thrift education. Since that time consistent and determined work has been accomplished in the schools. The World War added greatly to the interest in thrift. The government made war savings stamps of small denomination available, which when they were accumulated to the amount of $10, could be exchanged for liberty bonds. Thousands of young people who had never before systematically saved were soon in possession of liberty bonds.

As these stamps were sold through the schools, school people were made to realize the importance of thrift teaching which now is made, in many schools, a part of the regular program, and boys and girls in all grades are saving regularly and building up savings accounts. Various plans are used, but all schools are endeavoring to create in the boys and girls the habit of saving money.

Saving of money is, however, only one phase of thrift teaching and can be carried to the point where, instead of developing a thrifty person, it will develop the miser, who, no more than the spendthrift, is the thrifty person.

Three important factors in thrift, so far as money goes, are earning, saving and spending. Along with saving goes the wise investment of savings. Investment is also closely associated with earning. Hence, in any complete thrift program, will be taught the earning, saving, investing and spending of money. The complete thrift program will deal with other things besides money. Thrift of time, thrift of health, thrift of energy, will be included.

From studies made of progress in thrift, it is estimated that seven and one-half million pupils in the public schools are receiving systematic thrift instruction.

A writer in a well-known educational journal, not many years ago said: "In all schools there is a great waste on the part of pupils, of school supplies; there is unnecessary destruction of books; there is a lack of care of school property; there is evidence on all sides that the attitude of many Americans toward public property is not good. Look at defaced benches and littered walks in parks; look at stairways and halls in public buildings; visit schoolhouses and note the desks cut and marked; note the condition of the walls. Then consider that, in many cases, pupils from poor homes are guilty of this work of defacement simply because it is public property. Their actions seem to say that whatever is furnished by town or city costs nothing."

This criticism may have been correct a few years ago or perhaps yet in a few places, but where a comprehensive, systematic program of thrift teaching is in effect such criticism is based on the exceptional case.

Speaking of thrift in everything, Florence Banard of Brookline, Mass., says: "Reports from teachers all over the state indicate that, where the thrift idea is being stressed, there is a greater care of books and school property. Stressing thrift of time has led to fewer discipline problems for some, and continual emphasis on thrift of time and health cannot fail to bring about more regular attendance and fewer cases of repetition of the year's work, which has been an unnecessary burden of expense to taxpayers in many cases."

Character building is the primary and fundamental objective of every truly successful thrift program. Develop a better understanding of where money comes from, how it may be honestly made, how to spend it intelligently, and how it promotes industry, develops character so far as character is related to money.

In the New Castle schools thrift teaching, either directly or indirectly, is an important part of the curriculum. The care the child is required to take of his books, the carefulness with which school supplies are used, the requiring of the child to be regular and punctual in attendance, the emphasis placed on the pupil's health, all indirectly give valuable training in thrift as related to property, time and health. In some schools where it is possible to regulate the program definite thrift instruction is given in its various phases. In the auditorium work of the platoon school much definite instruction is given in thrift.

Perhaps the most concrete example of thrift teaching is that of the savings system used in the schools. Each school is provided with an automatic teller from which each pupil may get stamps of one, five, ten and twenty-five cent denomination by depositing the proper coin. These stamps are placed on a card and when the pupil has accumulated $1.00 in stamps he is expected to take the card to the bank and have the amount credited on his savings book. During the month of January there was put in the automatic receiving tellers by the pupils of the city $2,313.01 and since the present system was installed $73,159.63 has been deposited in the automatic tellers by the pupils in New Castle.

DANDRUFF A Sure Way to End It

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely, and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, soft and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy never fails.

New fitness—new energy in a morning drink

Do this on rising in the morning if you feel out of sorts or unfit. Drink a glass of water, hot or cold. Add a little "Epsomade," and you will have a sparkling and refreshing drink. In an hour things will change. The drink will flush the intestines to eliminate the poisons and the waste. This is done in a prompt and pleasant, in a gentle and efficient way.

It is done by acids derived from lemon and grape. Then remember this drink—"Epsomade" in water—whenever any clogging occurs. Take it any hour of the day. That's the quickest and the best way to correct things. Let a trial prove this to you. Get a small quantity, at small cost, at your druggist.

Skin hopeless?

But have you tried this treatment? Is your skin marred by blotches, pimples, rash or eczema? Perhaps you have tried dozens of remedies—without success. Then begin today to use Resinol. The first application usually stops all itching or smarting. Used for a reasonable time, it rarely fails to clear away the disorder completely. At all druggists.

Topic for the Week:

"RELIGION AND THE JOYOUS LIFE"

Monday:

"Joy Through Self-Expression"

SCRIPTURE: Memory verse: "That they may have my joy" (John 17:13)

Read: John 17:1-13.

MEDITATION: A popular gospel today is joy through self-expression. This gospel rests on secure foundations. Joy comes only through self-expression. It attends the release of human energy. There is physical activity in which youth rejoices; there is the higher joy of mental activity which the student knows; there is the still higher joy that attends the exercise of one's spiritual energies. When we let ourselves go in sympathy, in kindness, in forgiveness, we feel a thrill that comes in no other way. We have a sense of satisfaction and well-being. As love flows out, joy flows in. In the shadow of the cross Jesus speaks of "my joy." He felt the solemn, incomparable thrill of utter self-giving.

PRAYER: O God we pray Thee that we may exercise this day the noblest capacities that Thou has implanted within us. Give us courage and strength to put into daily practice our best thought and dispositions and the things we most sincerely believe. Amen.

Rex L. Patch Writes Of New Castle Folks Down At St. Petersburg

St. Petersburg, Fla.,
February 29, 1928.
Editor New Castle News.

Friend George,
Here is my annual Florida letter, which, if you care to use, will give our friends up there an idea as to what the New Castle colony is doing down here and also act as a sort of a family letter.

I drove down this year, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Allen and we had a very fine trip, except for the fact that we used about three times as much oil as we should and are considering the purchase of an oil well to supply us on the return trip. The roads are all fine except through Georgia, where we encountered a lot of dirt highways, but they were dry and we made good time over them. In fact, we drove from Spartansburg, S. C. to Jacksonville, Fla., 405 miles, in one day, and a lot of the road was dirt. The distance from New Castle to St. Petersburg is 1,400 miles.

It is not as warm here this winter as last, and I sleep under blankets most of the time, but it gets hot during the day and the sun shines most of the time. They have given the newspaper away on two days since we got here because the sun did not shine on those days.

and thence to Silver Springs where we had a wonderful trip in the glass bottomed boats. This is well worth seeing as the water is clear as a crystal and the different colored vegetation on the bottom, fish, turtles, et cetera, made an interesting sight.

The Mayberry's left us at Howie, going back to Orlando on their way home. We hated to have them leave the party as they are good company and especially their daughter Iva, who was very well liked by everyone.

From Silver Springs we came to St. Petersburg by the way of Brookfield, arriving here about 6:30 p. m.

I met Mr. Barnes of the Barnes-Snyder company and he left Sunday night for home. Mr. and Mrs. William Huggins and Dr. and Mrs. McDowell are also on the way home with stop offs at several places. St. Petersburg has made a lot of improvements around here and have just opened a new drive over John's Pass and several new drives.

Have been looking for Fred and Kate down here. I have been keeping copies of the News for Fred as he said that he might come over here, but I guess I shall give them to some of the ex-estate men to sleep on.

I saw George Haldeman, who was Ruth Elder's pilot, take up an old lady 104 years old yesterday and she seemed to enjoy it immensely.

Met a Mr. Keach at the Suvannee hotel, who drove one of those speed cars at Daytona last week 256 miles an hour. The car had 36 cylinders and was rated at 1500 horse power. It was the car that they would not let race officially as it had not reverse, but they are putting one on and we will hear more of it later. I asked him if he could see anything at that speed and he said "Yes, but I cannot tell what it is".

Well, the Carnival of States is on this week and I want to get downtown and see the floats, so will close. We will go north with the birds in a few weeks.

Yours very truly,
REX L. PATCH.

Airplane trips are the novel cure for whooping cough "discovered" by a German doctor; the young patients were taken for cruises of an hour each at a height of 10,000 feet.

Old Sores and Ulcers Can Be Healed!

Many a person has succeeded in healing stubborn old sores and ulcers with applications of Peterson's Ointment after expensive treatments had utterly failed.

Here is a letter well worth reading and if you have a friend afflicted the same, why not send him this? "About a year ago, I contracted a varicose ulcer on my arm which rapidly grew worse. They extended up my whole arm, one-half inch deep. I used several salves, but instead of making my arm better they made it worse. Blood poisoning nearly set in. Doctors told me I would have to have my arm amputated. Finally, I read about your Peterson's Ointment in the newspapers and began to use it. After several boxes I began to see an improvement, and within a short time the ulcers were entirely closed up and healed. I am glad to say a good word for Peterson's Ointment and you can refer to me any time."—Mrs. Patrick O'Neill, Buffalo, N. Y.

Nearly every druggist recommends Peterson's Ointment and you can get a good-sized box for only 25 cents.

Colds That Develop Into Pneumonia

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and breaks the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat trouble. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Commerce Club Has Open Meeting

New Plan Inaugurated By Organization At Senior High School

The Ne-Ca-Hi Commerce Club, a student organization at the Senior High School, has inaugurated something new in the way of meetings. Each month during the school year the club holds what is termed "an open meeting", to which the parents of the members of the club are invited.

The first public meeting to be held this semester was carried out recently in the high school auditorium. A large crowd turned out to witness the members and others perform on that night, reports say.

Harry S. Bailey of this city was the main speaker of the evening. In his talk Mr. Bailey pointed out the things which the business world requires of students after they have finished school, and he also explained the qualities which students should develop while in school.

Other interesting features of the program included the readings by Miss Edna Ford and Miss June Wolter and the vocal and piano solos rendered by the Misses Jennie Ventrella and Lucy Rosati, respectively.

Lucy Rosati, president of the club, opened the meeting and introduced Miss Josephine Genua, chairman of the program committee.

According to Harry D. Book, head of the commercial department at the high school, this meeting was the first of its kind to be sponsored by the club this semester. The next one is scheduled for some time in March. The exact date to be announced later.

March 3, 1928.

Dear Brother Lion:
At our meeting on Tuesday we will have as our guest our good friend, Senator Henry E. Lanier, from York, Pa. Lion Lanier has a special message for us in our work among the blind.

David Rees, one of our local baritone singers will sing for us Tuesday. Our state, county, and city executives will be guests as well.

Very cordially yours,
Thomas I. Elliott,
Secretary

BLOOD PRESSURE 200

Watch your blood pressure! If it's 180 or 200 instead of 120, it's a sign to be careful. High blood pressure cuts years off one's life. Heart palpitation, dizziness and difficulty are symptoms of high blood pressure, the result of our modern abnormal habits of life which put too great a strain upon the liver.

The liver becoming sluggish fails to cleanse the blood of the toxic poisons formed in food waste, which then permeate the whole system, affecting heart, blood pressure and blood vessels. The liver needs a little help occasionally. Nothing better for this, as medical men know, than a little ox gall. Ox gall is a remarkable natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal active functioning, so essential to real health.

Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol. They cost less than 2¢ each at good druggists, and a few soon tell.

Free Test Take this ad to the druggist named below and he will give you a free sample of Dioxol tablets. Try them yourself. See the splendid, quick results. One trial of Dioxol and you will want a full package!

Arrest Six In New Jersey For Slaying Of Man

Proprietor Of Speakeasy In Atlantic City Is Shot And Killed

FLAME GANGSTERS; VICTIM WELL KNOWN

Man Slain Was Formerly Manager Of Evelyn Nes-bit's Night Club

(International News Service)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 5.—A Pennsylvania automobile license was the only clue afforded to detectives searching for four gunmen who murdered Jerry Daniels, former night club associate of Evelyn Nesbit, in his speak-easy here last night.

The gunmen surprised Daniels while he was in the company of a blonde woman, picked a quarrel with him and killed him with a police of shots.

A bystander told police that the last three figures of the license plate of the murderers' automobile, in which they escaped, were "309."

Daniels, known as "Jerry, The Gangster" and "King of the Jungle," was believed to have double-crossed underworld associates. One report being investigated by detectives was that Daniels had personally appropriated money given him by New York gunmen to obtain the release of a pal in jail here.

In a round-up of criminals early today, detectives arrested six men for questioning.

Daniels is survived by his widow and two daughters. Several years ago he managed Evelyn Nesbit's night club here.

Pennsylvania Day At McGill School

Special Program Is Presented In Observance Of Annual State Day

Pupils of the Arthur McGill School, in recognition of Pennsylvania day, which was observed throughout the state on last Friday, presented a most appropriate and enjoyable program in the school's auditorium-gymnasium on that day.

The program follows:
Morning hymn.
Reading of Psalm 23—Margaret Dennis.
The Lord's Prayer.
"The Flag and the Eagle"—Song by the school.
The flag salute.
"Who Was William Penn and Why Did He Come to America?"—Betty Lou Orr.

Plan For Inquest Into Slaying Of Four Americans

Four Americans Slain While Escaping Jail In Ensenada, Mexico

(International News Service)
SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 5.—An inquest will be held at Tia Juana, Mex., over the bodies of the four Americans, who were slain in a desperate battle after escaping from a jail in Ensenada, according to reports reaching here today.

Despite the strict censorship which has been clamped down along the border, reports trickled through that the bodies of the four Americans had been taken to Tia Juana and placed in the municipal coroner's office there and that Mexican officials planned an investigation into the armed encounter which resulted in their death.

The four jailbreakers, said to be deserters from the United States army, who were killed in the fray, were: Lawrence N. Thompson, Elton E. Morehouse, Russell E. Tanner and E. E. Kirby.

The battle occurred when a company of Mexican rurales overtook the Americans as they were making a dash for the boundary.

Start Vegetable Plants Indoors

County Agent Gives Advice On Raising Cabbage And Tomato Plants

Early vegetable plants may be started indoors on a very small scale for the home garden. County Agent H. R. McCulloch says one needs a warm room, not too cold at night, not too warm in the day; a sunny window, preferably south or east; a shallow wooden box, with holes in the bottom or cracks between the boards for drainage; and in the box about three inches of good garden soil, not too rich nor too stiff.

"Sow the seeds in rows about two inches apart," he urges. "The soil must be kept moist, but not too wet. A newspaper spread over the surface keeps the soil from drying out before

YOUTH FACES AGE IN MURDER TRIAL

Attorneys in the "hammer murder" trial at Painesville, O., present an interesting study in contrasts. Mrs. Velma West, 21, charged with killing her husband, T. Edward West, with hammer blows, is represented by George M. Heil, Francis W. Poulson, and youthful Richard Bostwick. Opposing them is the aged Homer Harper, member of the prosecution. Three Great Messages At Special Meetings

One of the greatest days enjoyed for a long time by the membership of the Central Christian church and its visitors, was yesterday as evidenced by the large crowds attending all the services, beginning at an early morning hour and continuing until the close of the great evening service with a masterful sermon by Evangelist Walker on the subject of "Christian Unity."

Japanese Empress Turns To Nursing Husband-Daughter

Emperor Hirohito And Infant Daughter Princess Hisa
Are Ill

(International News Service)
TOKIO, March 5.—With both Emperor Hirohito and his six months old daughter, Princess Hisa, ill, Empress Nagako turned nurse today to direct the care of her little daughter.

Dr. Sato, chief of the court physicians, and three other doctors are in attendance upon the tiny princess, whose symptoms indicated septic anemia. She is being nursed by the empress assisted by a lady of the imperial court. Princess Hisa's condition was described tonight as "unchanged." Her temperature was 39.4 centigrade.

Emperor Hirohito is suffering from Catarrh of the nose and throat aggravated by a cold from which he has been suffering for several days. His condition is not causing any alarm. He will be confined to his bed for a short time.

CONFESSES BRUTAL CRIME TO MINISTER

"Feared That Wife Would Kill Him", Only Explanation Offered By Killer

SCRANTON, Pa., March 5.—"I did what my conscience told me. I feel that I did right."

This was the only comment of Russell P. McGarragh, 35, Sunday school teacher and bond salesman, as police questioned him today in an effort to establish a motive for his slaying of his wife, Dorothy, 28, in their home here last night.

McGarragh previously said he and his wife had had no quarrel before he picked up a bread knife and slashed her throat. For five hours after he killed her, McGarragh sat in the bathroom of their apartment beside his wife's body. Later he went to the home of a sister but finding the sister ill, he said he hesitated to tell her of his crime. He then went to the home of Rev. J. W. Nicholson, pastor of a nearby church, and told him of the murder.

The couple's one child, Jack, 5, was at McGarragh's sister's home when his mother was slain.

Police slowly pieced McGarragh's story together as plans were made to take him before a sanity commission after he is formally arraigned on a murder charge. He said that soon after he came from his Sunday school class yesterday he saw a piece of rope in the bathroom. Fearing that his wife was going to kill him with it, he said, he seized the bread knife and slashed her throat. He then sat by while she died, he said.

Overturned furniture was mute evidence, police said, that there had been a struggle.

Mrs. McGarragh was formerly Dorothy Tuckey, of Philadelphia. She married McGarragh, son of a prominent local druggist, seven years ago in Baltimore. Her mother, Mrs. Mae
S. Tuckey, and her sister, Mildred, live in Philadelphia.

Gambler's War In Brooklyn Claims Pair Of Victims

Two Mysterious Deaths In Brooklyn Gambling Section Reported

International News Service
NEW YORK, March 5.—The mysterious deaths of two gamblers in Brooklyn yesterday were laid by police today to a gamblers' war.

One of the victims, John Henry "Scarface" Spencer, 38, had made and lost fortunes on the race track.
Only two hours before he was struck over the head with a heavy implement early yesterday, he was reported to have won $75,000 in a dice game. All of his money, as well as numerous diamonds which he wore were missing.

Several years ago "Scarface" was known as Brooklyn's biggest gambler.
He operated eight elaborately furnished gambling houses, which were frequented by politicians and wealthy business men. He was well known in Baltimore, New Orleans, Lexington, and Saratoga.

The second victim, Richard Adams, 25, was shot by men in a speeding automobile. Gambling slips were found in his pocket and his face bore the face that is known in gangland as "the squealers' mark."

and respected for their love of music and ability to sing.

Mrs. Reynolds In Charge
At the conclusion of the dinner, Mrs. Frank Reynolds, president of the Women's Welsh Club, which organization sponsored the event, introduced Bart Richards, representative in state legislature from New Castle, as toastmaster. Toastmaster Richards announced that it would be his purpose to be brief. He said that an occasion such as this was held with no thought of divided allegiance but with a certain pride of race, which was submerged in the fact that they were all Americans, first, last and always.

He then introduced the Castle singers, Messrs. George Anthony, J.
O. Strimmar, R. E. Johns and Harry Evans and their accompanist, Edwin Lewis. These well known artists rendered three selections, "I Wonder How I Look When I'm Asleep," "A Little Close Harmony," and "Song of the Jolly Roger" in their usual fine manner.

Special Guests
The toastmaster then proceeded to introduce special guests of the occasion, seated at the speakers' table.
First of all he introduced Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simonton, direct descendants of Owen Richards, a Welsh pioneer who came to this country in 1710.

Other guests then introduced included Judge R. L. Hildebrand, Judge
James A. Chambers, State Senator
George Weingartner, Dr. W.
Charles Wallace, president of Westminster College, Mayor and Mrs. William H. Gillespie, Rev. F. S.
Clifford and Rev. J. Dudley Nee, assistant pastors of St. Mary's parish, Mrs. Charles Greer, president of the New Castle Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. Bella A. Taylor, Councilman D. O. Davies.

The Welsh Hymn Cwm Rhonda was then rendered with Mrs. John Evans directing and Mrs. Henry Badger at the piano. D. J. Jones of El-liwood City was then called upon to act as historian of the event. He told of how the Welsh race had tur-nished fourteen generals for the American Revolutionary army, four chief justices, nine presidents, numbers cabinet officers and many others who had much to do with the history of this country.

Pyle Introduces Davis
The solo Menta Gwen was then rendered in a very effective manner
by George Anthony. D. S. Pyle, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was then called upon to introduce the speaker of the day and honor the guest of the occasion, which he did in a most effective manner.

Secretary Davis, on arising after his introduction, was greeted with profound applause and after remarking that he was happy to be in New Castle, he asked for the indulgence of the audience, if he diverged for the moment to introduce another Sharon Welsh American, who was also doing great things for this country. This was no other than Harry Evans, now of Washington, D. C., and general sales manager of an international corporation for the sale of machinery.
Mr. Evans was accorded a rousing reception.

Resuming his address, Secretary Davis, said among other things that he attributed success in life to the religious training in early life. If the start is right, the balance of life is generally all right. The Welsh people, he said, were naturally religious and while some wander astray, that they generally come back. He then spoke humorously of the boom that was started four years ago for him as a candidate for president and which was ended, when it was found that he was not born in this country.

He said that he believed he was much better off for being where he was, than if he had been eligible for the presidency and had received it.
The presidency of the United States, he said was the most difficult job in the world, where while being responsible to the people, yet the president must decide what is right and go ahead, though he may be the majority of the people may think otherwise than he.

He then spoke at length on what men of the Welsh race had done for this country, stating that their part had been important and that no racial group had had a more important part than the Welsh, and that he was proud of the part that they had played in the development of the country.

He said that no genuine citizen is without some affection for the land in which he was born or from which he is descended and that one of the attributes of the Welsh people was the fact that they are proud of being American Citizens and to live in a land that has done so much for civilization.

Digressing, he then spoke of the fact that the world is now talking of depression and the tendency to urge that wages must be lowered, and go back to the pre-war period. This, he said, was contrary to the history of the world, that the tendency had ever been for better wages and for nobler and better things. Wages, he said, must ever go on and upward, never backward.

The better the wages, he said, the better the conditions. Education, he said, made better workmen. The more the people can procure, he said, the better conditions there will be for everybody.

He then touched on the coal strike situation, stating that it was a deplorable situation. He said the reduction of wages would not remedy the situation, because it would only decrease buying power, which is in itself a cause for the depression now.
After touching on numerous other things of importance, he concluded by expressing his pleasure at being in this city and stating that he would always be glad to accept an invitation to be with the people of this city.

Following his address, there were two selections by the Castle Singers,
"Jerusalem Morning," and "Coming Thru The Rye" after which the great Welsh hymn "Huddersfield" was sung by the audience. This done, the great concourse was dismissed with benediction by Rev. Samuel Whilding.

In the banquet hall, the speakers' table was arranged at the north side of the hall facing the other tables.
Two long tables in the center of the other tables, were used in seating the members of the reception committee.
Those who handled the very successful event for the Women's Welsh club were Mrs. Wilber Jones, general

State's Representatives In Congress Will Not Be Changed By Bill

By GEORGE H. MANNING.
(Washington Correspondent of The News.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 5.— Pennsylvania representation in congress after 1930 will not be changed if congress passes the reapportionment bill reported to the House of Representatives today by the Census committee and if the Census Bureau has correctly estimated the state's 1930 population.

Pennsylvania now has 36 congressmen and it is estimated that it will be entitled to the same number after 1930 if the number of members of the House of Representatives remains 435 as at present and as this bill provides. The present boundary lines of the Pennsylvania congressional district will probably be shifted however.

chairman, and Mrs. W. P. Williams and Mrs. R. E. Johns, who had charge of the dining room.

The program presented in connection with the St. David's Day banquet was the result of the untiring efforts of Mrs. John M. Evans, one of the most active members of the Women's Welsh Club and one of the city's best known singers and choir directors.

MAHONING TOWNSHIP RESIDENTS ASK FOR TOWNSHIP DIVISION

ling. In the Quaker Falls schools, and in the Miller school, both of which are located in the southern section, there are two teachers each, making 16 teachers employed in that section.

Should the township be divided as asked it is proposed to erect a twenty room school building at Hillsville.
This would take care of the pupils at the Hillsville, Quaker Falls and Miller schools and would provide much better school facilities than are now possible.

The present school building is an antiquated building, not properly equipped and poorly provided for from a sanitary point of view. Should a new building as proposed be erected, it would provide the very best of school accommodation.

In the petition presented this morning it is asked that the court designate a date for an election in order that the sentiment of the entire township may be registered. Judges Hildebrand and Chambers will consult on the matter and fix the date of the proposed election. It is likely that it will be held on the date of the spring primary if this is found to be feasible, as it would save expense of a special election.

Residents of the southern half of the community are said to be enthusiastic over the project and would like to see a new school building erected this year.

Spanish American Auxiliary Supper

Social Event Is Planned For Tuesday Evening At The Legion Home

Veterans of the Spanish-American War, their wives and families, will enjoy a joint social session Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Legion Home, which is to be in the form of an oyster supper, to be followed by an interesting program of speaking, games, etc.

The auxiliary has arranged to dispense with the regular business session on this occasion, in order that the Spanish-American veterans and those of their wives who are not affiliated may become better acquainted with the members and activities of the auxiliary.

Following the supper there will be cards, bingo and addresses; also special music.

The affair is expected to prove of interest to all those interested in the Spanish-American war veterans. Mrs.
William H. Dunlap is chairlady of the dinner and has as her assistants Mrs.
Edward Carr, Mrs. Milton Tyler, Mrs.
Charles Fullerton and Mrs. William Marso.

Much of the success of the affair is due to the efforts of Mrs. E. J. Suber, president of the auxiliary; Mrs.
Frank Nessel, the secretary, and Emmett Kurtz, commander of the Spanish-American war camp.

House Connections May Be Required

Grading And Servicing Of Rose Avenue Is About Completed

Council was informed today by City Engineer Frank Miller that the Weingartner Realty company has practically completed grading of Rose avenue and also the construction of a sanitary sewer in the avenue but no house connections have been made to the curb.

An ordinance providing for the projects has not yet been passed by city council though it is in committee.

The bill does not contain a provision for house connections as required under the ordinance for general improvements.

Solicitor White will be asked to amend the ordinance after which it will be passed.

Probabilities are that the company will be asked to make house connections to eliminate excavations after the street has been paved, though this is not contemplated as yet.

Build Foundation On Books, Is Warning To New Castle Children

Almost every afternoon, one can see many children in the New Castle Public Library, waiting patiently for some quite definite reason: to get a fairy tale, to get a picture book, or to get a story of adventure. These contacts with the finer things in life are often denied them elsewhere.

Benjamin Franklin, Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Edison, Andrew Carnegie—only to mention a few—in childhood built their foundations on books borrowed from every available source," declares Miss Alice M. Sterling, librarian. "Library work with children is now recognized as a proper part of national welfare by furthering through books the development of ideals in those who later are to carry the full responsibility of citizenship."

"The public libraries of today encourage children's reading through the story hour, the children's corner, the separate children's library, the children's reading room, open shelves easily accessible to small hands, and attractive collections of pictures and prints. More than one half the patrons of some of the larger libraries are children who have access to carefully selected book collections chosen for them by experts."

"The children's librarian has to be the co-worker of the teacher, a sister to the vocational instructor, a partner of the mother, and the right hand of the nurse and social worker. Her task is to reach all the children possible, to train them to use books as tools of the mind, and to create a love of reading for recreation and pleasure."

In a recent survey made by the American Library association, a store of valuable information about library work with children has been collected. The outstanding need in this field is for a bureau through which such information can be disseminated to encourage the improvement and extension of children's work until each child in America shall have an equal opportunity with every other child for making use of children's books and children's library service."

Lindy To Be Guest Of Legionnaires

Hope To Have Lindbergh, Byrd And Dawes At Annual Affair At Chester

(International News Service) CHESTER, Pa., March 5.—Chester Legionnaires will have as guests Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, Commander Richard E. Byrd and Vice President Charles G. Dawes on June 2, if there is no unforeseen hitch in the notables' plans.

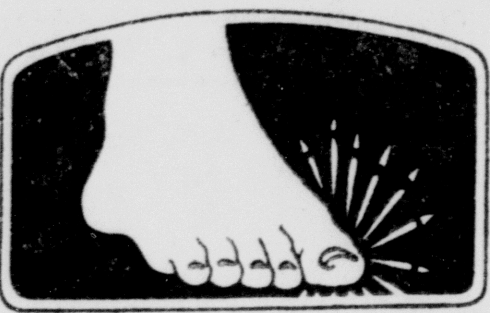

Commander Byrd has officially accepted the Legion's invitation to be an honor guest at the annual military day sponsored by the Sergeant Alfred Stevenson Post, while Col. Lindbergh and Dawes also hope to be able to attend.

Two Severely Injured As Auto Crashes Train

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, March 5.—When their automobile was demolished at an unguarded grade crossing near Blawnox, Helen Behr, 24, and Gus Bergmart, 24, were seriously injured. At the Allegheny General hospital Bergmart's injuries were described today as a fractured skull and bruises. Miss Behr was hurt internally.

Ingrown Nail Turns Right Out Itself

Turns Right Out Itself

A few drops of "Outgro" in the crevice of the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

Additional Loot In Mail Robbery Found By Police

Chicago Officers Uncover $15,870 More Of Grand Trunk Line Mail Robbery

(International News Service) CHICAGO, March 5.—Additional loot to the amount of $15,870 taken in the $133,000 Grand Trunk mail robbery here ten days ago was in the hands of a relative of William Donovan, one of the men indicted as a ringleader of the bandit gang.

The money, all in currency, was found in an old rocking chair in a woodshed in the rear of a home occupied by Miss Mary Hoffman, who is a sister of Mrs. William Donovan. It brings the total of the loot recovered to $33,005, investigators having previously located $17,125 in the home of Charles Clevor, also under indictment as one of the bandits. Practically $100,000 is still unaccounted for.

Mercer Men Start New Athletic Club

Class Composed Of Business Men Who Feel Need Of Physical Culture

MERCER, Pa., March 5.—The Mercer Men's Athletic Club has been organized by the election of James W. Evers, president; Ted Craig, treasurer, and Dr. Paul T. Hope and Harold Cousin's members of the executive committee. For the present the class will use the Johnson gym, and will meet each Wednesday evening and Dick Keck has been secured as instructor.

The class is composed of the business men and others of the town who feel the need of such training. It is hoped to have the movement terminate in a permanent organization with quarters of its own.

The air transport company operating between Chicago and San Francisco has become the largest commercial flying system in the world, with its acquisition of the controlling interest in the line operating between Seattle and Los Angeles.

Place Address On Only One Side Of Parcel Post Package

Doubly Addressed Packages Cause Confusion And Delay In Delivery

A parcel post package should have the address and return card only on one side. In order to insure the best service, according to advice from the Post Office Department, received at the New Castle Post Office.

James G. Leslie, assistant postmaster at New Castle says that nearly 20 per cent of the packages received for parcel post have the address on two or more sides of the package. Many people take this extra trouble thinking it desirable but post office officials state that it does more harm than good and request patrons of the mails to address packages on only one side.

Not only does it cause the officials much more to determine whether the right postage is on the package, but it also causes confusion and delay so that the sender often does not receive the full amount of service that he desires.

For example, after a package has been mailed the clerks will only look at the address to tell where to dispatch the package and thus often packages get onto chutes and bags which have special handling, special delivery, insured or C. O. D. stamps upon them. The clerk may not see the side that bears these stamps and thus this special service missed and delay caused.

It is well to place the address also on an inside wrapper and a return card, but better service is assured with only one address on the outside of the package.

'M. U. F.' Campaign Starts March 12

The week commencing March 12 and running through and including March 16, has been chosen as the dates for the annual M. U. F. campaign, conducted by the members of the school's Hi-Y club.

This event, otherwise called the "Move Up Forward" week, is held for the purpose of giving any boy who so desires, an opportunity to interview prominent business and professional men of this city.

There is no better way to get started in life than to talk with men who have had experience and so these men will help the boys whom they confer with, to decide what course they will take after graduation.

Over 90 boys obtained interviews with the city's most prominent men last year and all agreed that the talks with these men did them much good.

Our forefathers often placed horses' skulls under the floorboards of their music rooms in the superstitious belief that this improved the acoustics.

75-YEAR-OLD MAN AMAZED AT NEW- FOUND HEALTH

Says Words Cannot Express His Gratitude For Benefits
Ten Herbs Gave

"I was simply amazed at the benefits I got from the very first bottle of Ten Herbs," was the statement of Mr. Samael Kreps, 342 South Main Street, Butler, Pa., to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle.

MR. SAMUEL KREPS

Inc., 30 East Washington St., New Castle, where he is daily demonstrating this new herbal compound. "Words cannot express how grateful I feel, and I want everyone to know what your medicine is doing for me," continued Mr. Kreps, who is 75 years old, and has lived in Butler for 12 years. Mr. Kreps, who is a highly respected citizen, is a great grandfather, and says the way he feels now he expects to live to become a great, great grandfather.

"For years, I have been troubled with chronic constipation. I would have such dizzy spells that I would have to grab hold of something to keep from falling, and this condition was affecting my sight in general. I got so bad that I could not sleep at night, and was gradually becoming nervous and weak. My stomach was out of order, as after eating, gas would form and cause pain in the pit of my stomach, and give me shortness of breath. I was always a great walker, but was getting so I could not walk very far without feeling exhausted.

"Now, after taking Ten Herbs, I feel like a new man, as there seems to be new life coursing through my body. I feel as though I could do a good day's work. I can eat hearty meals without having distress afterwards. My bowels are regular, and I feel stronger in every way. My stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels seem to be working the way they should. I felt reluctant about trying Ten Herbs, as I had tried almost everything, but your medicine gave me a surprise.

Thousands make similar claims for Ten Herbs. They say it gives surprising results in relieving stomach, liver, and bowel disorders, and has a cleansing, soothing, correcting effect on the whole system.

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine. He will be glad to tell you how to take it to get the best results. Free sample given.

Pittsburgh Man Shot And Killed, Wife Is Witness

Blame Frequenters Of Saloon As Slayers Of Saloon-keeper

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, March 5.—Detectives investigating the murder of John Spehar, 35, saloonkeeper, beaten and then shot in full view of his wife in the rear of their home here, today discarded robbery as the possible motive. None of Spehar's personal effects was taken and he carried $67 when attacked.

The theory that enemies of Spehar, probably frequenters of his saloon, killed him is being checked. Police are holding an auto abandoned in the downtown district and believed to have been used by the slayers, who waited outside Spehar's garage until he and his wife drove in early Sunday evening, while Spehar was unlocking the garage doors, two men dragged his wife from the car and another shot him.

A lie gets half way round the world before truth has time to get its boots on.

REPORT SERIOUS RIOT IN VIENNA

(International News Service)
VIENNA, March 5.—Anti-Mussolini demonstrations took on a serious aspect here today.

Two Austrian war veterans were seriously wounded when the police clashed with a mob of Austrian Fascists which threatened damage to the Italian embassy. The police, mounted on horses, were forced to charge the infuriated citizens to disperse them.

FOUR PERSONS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE AS CAR IS OVERTURNED

(Associated Press)
MERCER, Pa., March 5.—Four persons in an auto driven by E. C. Mitchell, of Cleveland, Ohio, enroute from Pittsburgh to Cleveland, had a narrow escape, when their car skidded and overturned at "Hell's Hollow" three miles from Mercer, on the Mercer-Sharon road, yesterday.

All were slightly injured, but none seriously, although the car was practically ruined.

The total amount of damage caused by the recent flood disaster in Vermont is estimated at $30,000,000.

Crowds Continue To Witness Closing Union Services

Young Bell Ringers Delight Saturday And Sunday Audiences With Selections

Rev. Huffer And Rev. Little Preaching Last Two Sermons Of Union Services

ELLWOOD CITY, March 5.—At the Saturday evening union service the usual overwhelming crowds attended the service.

Rev. C. G. Huffer of the First Christian church gave the Saturday evening sermon and the subject was "The Claims of Jesus", outlining the following claims in a most interesting manner: pre-existence, supernatural birth, sinlessness, supernatural mission on earth, authority on earth and in Heaven and Oneness with God.

The little bell ringers from the Baptist church children's hour delighted the audience with several selections. Indeed, they were so good that Mr. Welch requested that they perform again Sunday evening.

On Sunday evening Rev. Robert Little delivered the sermon on "The Supper of the Lord" and the subject was "The Supper of the Lord" and the subject was "The Supper of the Lord".

The bell ringers were presented in two groups, Miss Leona MacGeorge, Bernice Porter and Bessie Burrows, and the second group, Misses Hazel Reese, Zella Wehman and the children played evangelistic songs. They will repeat the performance Tuesday night at the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church.

Lutheran Church Weekly Program

Lenten Services Will Continue Each Wednesday Evening At Lutheran Church

ELLWOOD CITY, March 5.—Lenten services each Wednesday will continue at the Trinity Lutheran church of this city. The services begin at 7:45 o'clock. During this Lenten season, the pastor, Rev. L. J. Baker, will present "The Way of Salvation" as set forth in the scriptures.

Monday evening members of the King's Messenger class will conduct a monthly meeting in the social rooms of the church. The Blues, a group led by Clarence Hollerman, having lost to the Reds, led by Mrs. George Atkins, in the contest which has been staged by the class during the past ten weeks, will pay the forfeit, which is a chicken dinner.

Wednesday all-day the Willing Workers society will conduct a weekly work meeting in the basement of the church.

Monday evening March 12, has been set aside for the regular meeting of the Brotherhood Bible class and also of the Queen Esther class. They will enjoy an illustrated lecture on "The Yellowstone National Park." The lecture will be given by the pastor, who has personally visited the park and has 100 views of the incomparable scenery of that section.

Thursday all-day members of the Ladies Aid will conduct a work meeting in the basement of the church.

Friday evening the weekly Children's Hour will be enjoyed by the small children of the community, in the church auditorium.

Many New Members Taken Into Church

ELLWOOD CITY, March 5.—Over thirty new members were taken into the First Presbyterian church of this city Sunday. This does not represent the entire list, as more are coming in later.

Monday evening members of the Young Women's Missionary Society will meet with Miss Frieda Wadsworth of 416 Park avenue for their monthly meeting.

Many of the young people have made reservations for the Young Peoples District Council meeting Tuesday afternoon and evening at the United Presbyterian church, when Miss Letitia Brown, a resident of this city, with headquarters in Philadelphia, and Rev. E. H. Bonsall will speak.

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock officers and teachers of the primary and beginners departments will conduct their monthly twelve dinner-meeting.

Even in a dry district, however, there is enough moisture to prepare the political dirt for mud slinging.

Republican Club To Have Drive For New Members

Col. Eric Fisher Wood Has Been Invited To Attend Meeting Here March 19

ELLWOOD CITY, March 5.—On Saturday evening the chairman of several committees of the Republican Club met with the club president and secretary in the First National Bank building and plans were made for the club's activities for the month.

The membership committee, of which Ray Aylesworth is chairman, will conduct a membership drive during the week of March 12. Plans will be appointed and the campaign will end on Monday evening, March 19, at the big evening meeting that the club entertainment committee is planning.

Chairman Aylesworth is chairman of the drive, with "500 members by March 19th" as the slogan. He will announce the teams in the next day or so and plans are being made for the most complete membership drive that Ellwood has ever had.

Colonel Eric Fisher Wood, chairman of the executive committee of the state Republican committee, has been invited to attend the March 19th meeting, accompanied by other state leaders. It is hoped that Chairman W. L. Mellon can attend, if business in the eastern part of the state does not hinder.

The entertainment committee, Charles Stiner chairman, will meet again this week at Chairman Stiner's announcement, for the definite plans on the entertainment features of this March meeting.

Jaworski Trial Starts Tuesday In Pittsburgh

Andrew T. Park, Former Westminster Grid Player, To Try Case For State

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, March 5. — Andrew T. Park, assistant district attorney, today put the finishing touches on the prosecution's plans for the trial of Sam Jaworski, brother of the leader of the notorious "Flathead" gang of payroll bandits.

The younger Jaworski, identified as the man who smuggled weapons into his brother in the county jail and aided the latter and another prisoner to shoot their way to freedom, wounding two guards, goes on trial tomorrow on five charges.

He will be tried on two counts of felonious assault and battery, two of aiding prisoners to escape and one of carrying concealed weapons. He also has been indicted for first degree murder for the slaying of I. L. Gump, Pittsburgh Terminal Coal Corporation payroll guard. The trial on the murder count will come later.

Jaworski's brother, under death sentence for murder, is still at large. Two other members of the gang, Joe Weekowski and Stanley Bodziakowski, are serving sentences.

Pilsudski's Party Believed Victors In Election Vote

(International News Service)

WARSAW, Mar. 5.—Early returns today indicated that President Pilsudski's party—the government bloc—had gained a victory in the general election on Sunday. The election was to choose members of the new Sejm-parliament—and while the government bloc apparently held the lead the Communists showed gains and the Socialists held their own in most districts. The Communists gains were in the larger cities.

It is believed that the Government Bloc will not emerge strong enough to form a new government by itself, but will have to create a coalition ministry.

Buffalo Bill, Scout Of Scouts—Part VII
Billy Cody's School Days

IN 1856 A SCHOOL TEACHER CAME TO THE SETTLEMENT IN KANSAS WHERE BILLY CODY LIVED, AND ALL THE CHILDREN WERE ENROLLED AS PUPILS. BILLY ATTENDED REGULARLY AND FOUND SCHOOL LIFE ATTRACTIVE, PARTICULARLY BECAUSE OF A PRETTY LITTLE GIRL WHO SAT NEAR HIM.

THE YOUNG MISS AND BILLY SOON BECAME SWEETHEARTS. IN HIS HOURS OF FREEDOM FROM SCHOOL AND HOUSEHOLD CHORES, THE BOY BUILT A PLAYHOUSE BESIDE A STREAM FOR HIS LITTLE FRIEND. ONE TIME AN OLDER BOY WHO DISLIKED BILLY DISCOVERED THE PAIR AT WORK ON THE HOUSE.

CONFRONTING BILLY, HE BEGAN TO TAUNT HIM FOR PLAYING WITH A GIRL, AND TRIED TO KNOCK DOWN THE LITTLE HUT. FORGETTING THAT HE HAD A KNIFE IN HIS HAND, BILLY SPRANG UPON HIS TORMENTOR. IN THE SCUFFLE THE LARGER BOY WAS PRICKED IN THE HIP WITH THE KNIFE.

THE WOUND WAS A MERE SCRATCH, BUT THE VICTIM CRIED OUT THAT HE WAS KILLED, AND YELLED SO LOUDLY THAT BILLY BECAME PANIC-STRICKEN AND FLED THROUGH THE WOODS AS THOUGH THE SHERIFF WERE ALREADY AT HIS HEELS.

FANS READY FOR FISTIC WHIRL TONIGHT

De Arco To Box U. S. Carpentier

De Arco Has Won From Rosey Stoy, Merle Alte And Maxie Holub

THREE OTHER BOUTS ON OLD ARMOY CARD

By ED FRITZ.
U. S. CARPENTIER, the Teaser, from Pittsburgh sometimes referred to as "The Hard Boiled" and Louie De Arco the featherweight Gibraltar of Cleveland, are the stars in the six round Grand Finale of the Jolly Fistic circus at the Old Armoiy tonight, the place where knockouts are distributed lavishly.

The Gibraltar, so-called because no one to date has been able to make him step back, let alone knock him from his pins and the Teaser because he has a tantalizing left hand that rapiers its way into an opponent's face and jaw have been secured to substitute for Jimmie Russell and Harry Crisp.

Secures Better Bout.

Russell swallowed a run-out polder when he was matched with the St. Petersburg featherweight and according to our way of thinking it is perhaps a good thing for him that he took the powder substance. However in matching De Arco and Carpentier Ringmaster Billy Jolly executed a neat piece of pugilistic work and the card looks better than ever.

Carpentier appeared against Mickie Dugan recently and there is not a fan in the city or any other city, for that matter, who will not agree that he is a busy bee in the ring. He knows how to box, is fast, has a fast left hand and carries a good sock in his right. He is elusive, hard to hit and isn't afraid to step into an opponent.

De Arco Real Fighter.

Carpentier however is not meeting an ordinary featherweight tonight. In fact he is fighting the best featherweight he has been signed to meet because De Arco holds victories over Rosey Stoy, Merle Alte, Joey Abrams, Joe Ortiz, Johnny Mellow, Tod Smith, Shifty Dando, Maxie Holub and has fought no decision bouts with Eddie Weygant and others.

He is a knockout artist as one of his bouts show where he knocked out Maxie Holub, stopped Teddy Joyce and has chased all over the ring such elusive stars as Eddie Anderson, Al Corbett and has a host of other creditable performance to his credit. In selecting an opponent for Carpentier Jolly didn't pick any soft pie for U. S., that's a cinch.

Meets Clever Boxer.

Here's how it came about that these two were matched. After Jimmy Russell contracted cold feet, Jolly wired Jimmie Dunn and the latter explained to De Arco a good money fighter how the card would have to be postponed. "Put it on Jim, that's your home town. I'll box there for nothing, if you say the word."

So that is why De Arco is coming. He is not a boxer. Let this be explained now but as a fighter he is a pugilist with a capital P. He doesn't go in for the finer points but tries to accomplish knockouts by beating down his foes and he doesn't let a stiff punch back him up. The fight tonight will be boxer vs. fighter with action every second.

Three Good Preliminaries.

The preliminaries should be up to the calibre of past bouts. Jack Fink, East Brook, who has been training constantly for three weeks, fights Eddie Kilvady, Pittsburgh in the semi-final.

Emil Small Neck will fight in another preliminary and Henry Slate and Jack Drake who fought a great fight last Monday night have been matched for the curtain-raiser.

First Christians Defeat Croton M. E.

The First Christians remained tied with the Temple Israel team for second place in the New Castle church league on Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A. by nailing out the Croton M. E. team 25 to 22.

The game was an interesting one from start to finish, with the score deadlocked at 12-12 at the end of the first half of play. The attack by Sargent and Lackey in the second half gave the Christians their victory. Nolan and Colaluca played well for the losers.

The summary:

First Christians 25 Croton M. E. 22
Alexander F. Colaluca
Sargent F. Nolan
G. Lackey C. Twaddle
Reiber G. Kroen
McIntosh G. Benninghoff

Finlander Is Leading Cross Country Runners

Willie Kohlemainen Holding First Place In Cross-County Marathon

International News Service.
PUENTE, Cal., March 5.—With Willie Kohlemainen of Finland, holding first place, more than 250 heel and toe performers, turned their faces toward New York and $25,000 of C. C. (Cross-Country) Pyle's prize money to resume today their trans-continental marathon.

The competitors, representing nearly every race on earth, including the Vanishing American, streamed into Puente last night and retired for an overnight sleep. Puente, 16 miles from Ascot Speedway, Los Angeles, where the race began yesterday afternoon, is the first control point of a long string, stretching to Manhattan. Kohlemainen, a cousin of Hans Kohlemainen who took first honors in the marathon of the 1920 Olympics, negotiated the distance in one hour, 38 minutes and 29 seconds. Second to him came Gunnar Wilson, who was followed in turn by Richmond, Quomawhu, the Hopi Indian, and the remainder of the aspirants strung out along the trail.

Pittsburgh Girls Win From New Castle Girls At Duckpins

Fifty employees of the B. & O. railroad from Pittsburgh came to New Castle Saturday and played two special duckpin matches against a men's and girls' team from this city. The local girls' team lost, but considering that the team was only recently organized, they made a good showing. The men's team, however, defeated the Pittsburgh aggregation, 2,235 to 2,106.

Grovers Have Two Important Games On Basketball Program

Meet Allegheny College On Tuesday Night And Westminster On Saturday

GROVE CITY, Pa., March 5.—With Allegheny College at Grove City on Tuesday night, and Grove City at Westminster College on Saturday night, the 1928 basketball season will close for the Crimson quintette. Although Grove City defeated both Allegheny and Westminster in games earlier in the season, the outcome of both the games this week is problematical. Captain Gillium and his team-mates have just concluded a strenuous trip the past week, and they will no doubt enter the present week tired and lacking enthusiasm.

To add to Coach Bob Thorn's troubles, the Annual Mercer County Interscholastic Tournament opens on Wednesday night, lasting until the close of the week. These tournament games are always high spots of enthusiasm. They detract the attention and interest of the College Varsity players from their own games to the tourney games. Coach Thorn is not very optimistic concerning the outcome of this week's games, especially that of the game with Westminster.

The youngest ball player taken under contract to any of the major league training camps this spring is Joseph Doughty Cicero of the Boston Red Sox. Young Cicero, who is an Atlantic City high school boy, was 16 years old last November.

Westminster's Conference Champs

Winners Of Tri-State Conference Championship For 1928.

City game here Saturday night even though the Geneva game be lost. By virtue of the victory over Thiel Friday night Westminster has won eight and lost one in conference competition. In the 18 games played this season the Titans have won 16, rolling up a total of 704 points to 359 for opponents. Delahunty, with 235 points; Connor with 144 and Captain Tudor Lewis with 103, are leading the scorers and all stand high in conference scoring as well. In only two games both of which were lost have the Titans been trailing at half time and in all games played only two teams have been successful in holding Lawther's men to less than 30 points. Allegheny, Waynesburg, Bethany, St. Francis and Thiel have each been defeated twice, both at home and abroad; while Duquesne and Geneva have been defeated once.

Following the Grove City game, which the Grovers won by a 26-24 score, Westminster won 13 games in a row before the Dukes broke the winning streak. Seven of these 13 consecutive victories were in conference competition.

Indigestion. It lolls in lunch kits and on the priceless plates of plutocrats with the same edible ease and tasty indifference. The history of America is replete with the heroism of this delectable dish. It bolstered the boys on Bunker Hill, was gulped at Gettysburg, and is now the very backbone of all patriotic cook books.

Four Fast Games In Y. M. C. A. Junior Loop

Four fast games were played in the Y. M. C. A. Junior League on Saturday afternoon. In the first game the Acmes, led by McLaughlin and Alexander, defeated the Aces, 30 to 15. At the end of the first half the Acmes and Aces were tied at 11-11.

The Castles had an easy time downing the Elks, 32 to 13, in the second game of the program. The score at half time favored the Castles, 12 to 5. Jewell, with six baskets, was the big star of the game.

The Celtics swamped the Highland team, 21 to 9, in the third game on the bill. The tally at the end of the first half favored the Celtics, 9 to 4. The Highland team was held to four field goals. The work of Mariacher featured for the Celtics.

The Smiths nosed out the Indians, 15 to 13, in the fourth and final game after an extra minute session was indulged in. The score was deadlocked at 13-13 at the end of the regulation game. DiMuccio and C. Smith led the attack with two baskets apiece.

New Castle-Monaca Battle Wednesday At Pitt Stadium Floor

New Castle High School Basketball Team Paired With Monaca In Second Round

Locals Confident Of Putting Up Fast Game On Pitt Stadium Court

Wednesday night, March 7, New Castle high school basketball team will play Monaca high at the University of Pittsburgh stadium floor in the second round of the W. P. I. A. L. tourney.

Both New Castle and Monaca drew byes in the first round pairings, and have been selected to battle it out in the initial contest of the second round. The winner of the game Wednesday night will meet the winner of the Monessen-Sewickly-Fifth Avenue battles. Monessen and Sewickly will tangle tomorrow night at the stadium and the winner of this contest will meet Fifth Avenue on Saturday night, March 10.

Should New Castle come through with a victory on Wednesday against Monaca they will play in Pittsburgh again on Tuesday night, March 13.

Monaca Awarded Title. New Castle is looking for some stiff opposition from Monaca high in their initial meeting Wednesday. Two years ago New Castle was cast in the same league with Monaca and the locals defeated the Monaca boys on two occasions.

Monaca high won the title in Section IV of the W. P. I. A. L. this year through a ruling that gave them the honors over Woodlawn. The Woodlawn team finished first in the loop over age and all of Woodlawn's games were declared forfeited. Monaca high finished second with a fairly successful season.

In two tilts this year with Section III teams the Monaca boys have split even. Recently Beaver Falls high gave the Section IV winners a drubbing 28 to 14, and Ellwood City lost a hard fought 26 to 24 battle to the valley quintet.

Fully recovered from the severe strain under which the Butler game placed them, the New Castle team will resume training today for their next tourney game at Pittsburgh.

Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh was entirely satisfied with the manner in which the locals defeated Butler high on last Friday night. The Red and Black team acted like a group of veterans after that first quarter and took it upon themselves to get back into the spotlight of the W. P. I. A. L. chase for the honors. It has not been intimated but there is a possibility that Coach Bridenbaugh will send the same lineup back to the court on Wednesday night.

Johnny Kilbane Here With Dunn

Former Featherweight Champion Of World To Attend Bouts

GOT REAL START IN LOCAL BATTLE

Johnny Kilbane, former featherweight champion of the world, will visit friends and attend the boxing bouts at the Old Armoiy here tonight, according to a telephone call received by the writer today from Jimmie Dunn, manager of Louie De Arco.

Kilbane won the championship from Abe Attel and lost his title after a 10 years' reign, to Eugene Crippen. Kilbane was developed by Jimmie Dunn and one of his first bouts, one in which he really started toward higher fistic achievements was with Young Zahmiser here.

He later fought Battling Terry, who in his early day fought under the name of Eugene Rose of New Brighton. Kilbane won both bouts and continued to win until he achieved his goal.

Believe Hahn And Carr Will Better Records

Lawson Robertson, Olympic Coach, Says Athletes
Have Not Reached Peak

OLYMPIC MARKS
LIKELY TO FALL

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service
NEW YORK, March 5.—Men like Lloyd Hahn and Sabin Carr who set up almost incredible records in the half mile run and pole vault respectively within recent days probably have not reached the full limit of possible performance, according to a statement made to the writer today by Lawson Robertson head coach of the American Olympic team. He declared that it would have been possible for him to have bettered 151 for the half mile on Saturday night, if he had been raced to the tape the way most record-breakers have a right to expect.

As for Carr it is Robertson's idea that the Yale man clearly proved that he can vault as high as 14 feet 5 inches when he set a new record of 14 feet 1 inch a week ago.

"When you get athletes like Hahn and Carr shooting for records the limit resolves itself into the question of what else we may be able to give them in modern equipment," Robertson declared. "Pole vault records began soaring as soon as we introduced the bamboo pole 20 years ago. It has remained for a super-vaulter like Carr to make the most of the improved implement."

"Hahn went to the mark on Saturday night, facing a nearly perfect course. It was a fast, springy track, banked perfectly on the turns and wide enough to prevent any congestion. It was conceded that Hahn had it in him to run the half mile in record time if conditions were right.
They were almost perfect and with Sam Martin's fast early pace, Lloyd did the rest. He beat Peltzer's outdoor record of 1:51 3-5 by exactly a fifth of a second."

Leo Lowski, the Idaho boxer who has drawn close to the light-heavyweight championship, has had 64 ring battles with only four decisions against him and 33 knockouts to his credit.

Mac Smith Looks Due Vet Golfer May Break Jinx This Year

By JACK SORDS
MacDonald Smith made his first bid for the national open title when he was only 18 years old. That was "way back in the year 1910. Even then he was a crack golfer."

After finishing in a tie with his brother, Alex, and John McDermott in the 72 holes championship play, he lost to his kinsman in the playoff.

Strangely enough, that was the closest he ever came to the cherished title. However, judging by the rate he has been going since the first of the year the veteran may have to be looked out for this summer.

There are many things to wager that the veteran is ripe for some big things this year, even though it is quite late in his golf career.

Smith's backers point to the way he won the recent Los Angeles open as an indication of what may be expected of him. He sailed right thru younger opposition.

To reach the top Mac Smith must dodge the jinx that has been following him in the national events. He is admittedly one of the best medalists in the game and a great "money player". In big purse play Mac is usually the favorite, but in national open play, heretofore, he always, somewhere on the route, ran into an 80 to spoil his chances.

Maybe he has the jinx caged this year; if so he might take place with the two immortals of his family.

Alex Smith, his brother, capped the 1910 title and one before that in 1908.
Willie Smith, another brother, also held the title.

What a record that would be, if Mac comes through. Three brothers having held the same national golf title, one of them twice!

Ben Franklin Boys Take Junior Title

The Ben Franklin High school basketball team closed their 1927-28 season on Friday afternoon with a 33 to 21 victory over North Street Junior High. The victory gives Ben Franklin High the junior high school championship of the city.

The Franklinites took an early lead throughout the game. Ruha, Lascola and Deep were the big stars in the attack of the newly crowned champions. Fabian and Leonhart played a bang-up defensive game. For the North street boys the work of Mc-Ivor was sensational, this youngster dropping six baskets.

Make Fine Record
Coach Norton's team had a mighty successful season, winning 12 out of 13 games, and finishing first among the junior high schools. The only game of the season that went against the Franklinites was the Shenango High affair that ended 14 to 13. Emulating the Trade School, the Franklin passers came through with a fine season.

The game with North Street was a lively affair and was hard fought in almost every quarter. The North Street team, under the tutelage of Coach Ward, has shown wonderful improvement and bears little resemblance to the former North Street teams, and also the weak outfit that represented the North street school at the start of the season.

Close Games In City League On Saturday Night

Penn-State Team Noses Out Athletics 14-13; Liberty Five Trips Marshalls
18-17

Two mighty close basketball games were played in the City league at the Liberty Five defeated the Marshalls 18 to 17, and the Penn-State team nosed out the Athletics 14-13.

In the first game on the program the Penn-State team came from behind in the second half to grab the victory. The Athletics led at the end of the first two periods by a score of 7 to 5. The Penn-State team was held scoreless from the field in the second half. Foul goal tossing decided the issue.

The Liberty Five led the entire way over the Marshalls in their game in the league. The score at the end of the half favored the Liberty Five 15 to 5. The attack put up by the Marshalls in the third and fourth quarter almost surmounted the big advantage of the Liberty Five in the first two periods. The Liberty Five won the game through their efforts on the four line.

Re-enter The Chesty One

By Feg Murray

The come-back attempt of Joe W.
Ray is very interesting. Not because the come-back attempts of any star athletes are always interesting, but because Joe W. Ray is also very interesting himself. Back in 1915 at the National A. A. U. championships at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco, Ray made his debut under most unusual circumstances. At that time Norman Taber held the world's record for the mile at 4 minutes, 12 3-5ths seconds.
Very few people had ever heard of Joe Ray. Just before the race Taber was introduced as the world's champion and got a big hand. The announcer evidently forgot Joe.

This rather annoyed that young man, so he picked up the megaphone, which was nearly as big as himself, and announced to the crowd as follows: "You've never heard of Joe Ray, but you'll know all about me
after this race is run!" After the race was over, it was quite evident that the "Chesty One" was THERE.

Ray, but you'll know all about me
after this race is run!" After the race was over, it was quite evident that the "Chesty One" was THERE.

Floor Notes

The Chandeliers issue a challenge to any junior basketball team in the city or county, claiming the junior championship. The Chandeliers have had a fairly successful season and are out to win the title. Bill Haines is manager of the Chandler team.

The Penn-Billiards would like to arrange games with any fast team in the city or county between the ages of 16 and 22 years. This team can assure any team of a fast attraction.
For games at home or away call 9148
and ask for "Ed" or "Denny".

The Happy Five defeated the West
Pittsburgh Floormen 8 to 6 in a game played on the West Pittsburgh floor.
The score at the end of the first half was 4 to 0 in favor of the Happy Five.
Gesue won the game for the Happy Five in a field goal in the closing minutes of play.

The Liberty Five of the City league will play three games this week. Tonight at the Y. M. C. A. the Liberty Five will play the Athletics in a City league attraction and on Wednesday night the Penn-State team will be met in a City league game. On Friday night the Liberty Five travels to Beaver Falls to meet the fast Keystone team of that city. The Liberty Five-Athletic game tonight should settle the league championship. Manager Tino asks the Liberty players to meet at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock.

Harvard athletic authorities deny the rumor that the university has

MAKE ARRESTS AT SOUTH SIDE HOME

When Officers Thomas and Lettara visited the home of Thomas Powell, negro, on the South Side, Sunday night, they report they found things rather disorderly. They found a small quantity of liquor in the place. Powell, his wife and three visitors were arrested. Powell was today turned over to Alderman Walter T. Hamilton to answer a charge of possessing liquor, while his wife was discharged, one visitor sent to jail for 10 days and two visitors forfeited deposits of $10 each. There was also one plain drunk in the class today, and he paid a fine of $5.

HUSBAND MISSING

Mrs. Herbert Pringle, 408 Neshaunock avenue, reported to the police Saturday that her husband, Herbert H. Pringle, had been missing from home since February 27. There is no reason known to her, she stated, why her husband should disappear and she fears that some harm may have occurred to him.

Properties Sold At Sheriff Sale

Several properties were sold by Sheriff H. M. Reynolds at the courthouse this morning. Deputy Sheriff William Reynolds acting as auctioneer.

Property of S. E. Martin and others in North Beaver township was bid in by Attorney Rufus McKinley, representing a land bank, for $50 in addition to the mortgage, which with accrued interest amounted to over $5,000.

Property of Jacob Cotler, located in the fifth and seventh wards, was bid in by Attorney E. F. G. Harper, representing creditors, for $50.

Property of Stefan Schuster, located in Ellwood City, was sold to C. C. Law for $600.

Sale of the Munnell property on Superior street was postponed until March 7.

There were several other properties advertised for sale, but the claims were settled and the sales called off.

International News Service)
NEW YORK, March 5.—Strong and aggressive buying of General Motors at new record prices featured the early trading in the stock market today. The stock gained 3 points in the first half-hour, in an unusually heavy turnover, in which numerous 10,000 share blocks changed hands.

Hudson, Hupp, Studebaker, Willys and Packard enjoyed an active and firm market, and the movement in United States Steel Common stock was moderate in this period.

At 147 1/2, General Motors showed a gain of 4 points since Saturday's opening. This represents a market appreciation of about $40,000,000 on the outstanding stock of the company; and a value of $2,500,000,000 on the 7,400,000 shares of stocks in the hands of investors. It was partly in recognition of this fact that DuPont moved up 7 points to the year's high price of 340.

United States Steel resumed the rally which was in progress at Saturday's close, moving up 1 1/2 to 141 1/2 in the first hour.

Local People Take Part In Program

Interesting Event Is Held In Sharon On St. David's Day

Mrs. John Evans and Mrs. Henry Badger, well known in musical circles of this city, were in Sharon Saturday evening and took part in the St. David's Day celebration held there and at which James J. Davis, secretary of the labor, was the principal speaker.

The event was held in the First Presbyterian church of that city and more than six hundred people were in attendance.

Mrs. Evans was never heard better than on Saturday night, when she rendered solos and also led the congregational singing. Mrs. Badger presided at the piano. Senator Service was toastmaster. Harry Evans, former Sharon resident, and a prominent business man of Washington, D. C. sang a solo. Mrs. Evans had charge of the music of the event.

In the course of his address, Secretary Davis urged all Sharon people, who have not seen the Cathedral in New Castle, to do so. He said it was one of the greatest public buildings of the kind that he had ever seen.

He spoke of the wonderful St. David's Day event held here in the afternoon of Saturday and especially commended the congregational singing here and at Sharon.

DISOWNED "HEIR" WILL HAVE HOME

Assured Future For Disowned Boyer "Heir" Is Indicated Today

(International News Service)
DETROIT, March 5.—An assured future for Mrs. Myron Boyer the only mother he has ever known, was indicated today for 4-year-old Joseph Andrew Boyer, disowned "heir" to the Burroughs adding machine millions.

John Zurbick district immigration inspector, declared that if Mrs. Boyer appeared at his office an arrangement giving her custody of the child in this county probably could be entered into.

Mrs. Boyer has not been located since last Friday. If she does not go to the immigration office for an interview there will be no other course but to ask for a warrant of deportation for the child, born of Canadian parents, Zurbick said.

Obtaining the boy from an unwed Windsor, Ont., maid, Mrs. Boyer pretended to her husband that he was their own "in an effort to preserve the Boyer home." Boyer discovered the deception and has started suit to have records of the boy's birth as his son expunged.

The show will be an event of two days and nights, closing at 10 p. m. and one of the evenings will be set apart as "society night" when all of New Castle's elite will be specially invited to be present, a special list of patronesses being prepared to look after their comfort and entertainment.</

Grove City Man Gets Promotion

James A. Allison Ranks As Sergeant Major Of First Battalion

GROVE CITY, Pa., March 5.—James A. Allison, local ex-service man and prominent optician, was promoted to the rank of Sergeant Major of the First Battalion, 112th Infantry, of the Pennsylvania National Guard, according to the order through Regimental Headquarters, here at Grove City, this week. Allison, formerly a member of the Regimental Headquarters Company, was transferred to the First Battalion and promoted to ranking non-commissioned officer because of his knowledge of military work, gained while acting as company clerk of Headquarters Company.

Mr. Allison is one of Grove City's most active ex-service men, taking active part in the functioning of the local American Legion Post. He served last year as adjutant of the Grove City Post.

Ask Relocation Of Mercer Road

Citizens Petition For Resumption Of Abandoned Traffic Lane

MERCER, Pa., March 5.—Several petitions were sent to the State Department of Highways, Friday, asking that the Mercer-Sharon road, when it is improved between the foot of Wallace Hill and Mercer, be relocated to go over the old road, which was abandoned for no apparent reason when the road was built a number of years ago.

The petitions are largely signed by leading citizens of the county, men who constantly use the road, and are familiar with the conditions.

The department has been requested to make an investigation of the proposed route up over the hill before it definitely decides upon a route.

The engineering corps that has been going over the route during the past week, has retired from the job, and the old road is being patched up for use.

BREAKS LEG ATTENDING NEW CASTLE-BUTLER GAME

BUTLER, Pa., March 5.—Attorney Harry L. Graham of Butler, is in a Pittsburgh hospital as the result of a fall Friday night when he slipped on the ice and fractured his left leg below the knee. Mr. Graham was attending the Butler-New Castle basketball game in Pitt stadium.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

Coste and Lebriz, the French round-the-world fliers, will get back to Paris some day. I hope, safely too, but they'll never know of the effort some New Castle people made to see them up near Sharon yesterday afternoon.

Along with a lot of other folks, I decided to run up and take a look at them, and with a former flier, a friend of mine, started out just before that blizzard broke loose.

The farther out the Wilmington road we got, the worse the weather became, and as we turned out of New Wilmington the car was covered with sleet, the windshield wiper had frozen up and the windshield was covered with a thick coating of ice and snow, with just a peep hole open for vision.

The storm had darkened the day, the lights were sheeted with ice and no chains on the wheels. But we were going up to see the French fliers.

State street hill in Sharon was like a pane of glass and going down it was like sliding down a greased pole. And then when we got into Sharon we learned that the fliers had left.

Abe Frank was one of the New Castle people who saw them. Abe works in Sharon and was out at the field early Sunday morning. Just as a memento, he had Coste autograph a dollar bill, and last night Abe was trying to sell it for $2.00. No takers, and he finally dropped to $1.50. And he still has the autographed bill. One hundred years from now he figures the bill will be worth something. It will, at least one dollar.

A lot of people met Secretary James J. Davis on Saturday, but a number of youngsters have a record of their meeting him. The Who's Who Club of the Mahoning junior high school, under the supervision of Miss Margaret MacQueen, met the distinguished guest and then had a picture taken with him standing on the Cathedral steps.

If you were out at all last night perhaps you noticed the clear night. The storm had cleaned off the ceiling of the sky and the moon polished it up until the reflection made the earth almost like daylight. But then, maybe you were wise enough to stay in last night and do a heavy job of sitting in front of the gas log.

A great airplane meet at Le Bourget airdrome, the aviation field where Lindbergh landed on his transatlantic flight, is to mark the close of the international aeronautical exhibition in Paris this summer.
